

GENERAL ASSEMBLY NEARING FINISH OF WORK

DAILY SESSIONS TO BE HELD IN EFFORT TO COMPLETE WORK

Must Complete Work by June 18 if the Governor is to Have Ten Days in Which to Approve Bills—Believed That Road Bond Bill and Brundage Appropriation will Pass

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 9.—Members of the 53rd general assembly will start on the home stretch of the session Monday afternoon.

During next week both houses will meet every day in efforts to move the great mass of bills lodged on the calendar, and prospects are that by working at top-notch speed the legislators will be able to conclude their activities by midnight of Monday, June 18. The windup must come by that date if the governor is to be given the ten days allowed him for consideration of bills passed before the last day, technically, of the session June 30.

When the senate convenes at 5 P. M. Monday they will resume the trimming of the omnibus bill, taking up first the amendment by Senator Dailey, Republican, Peoria, to restore the $200,000 for employment of district health employees eliminated by the house. After the house got thru with the bill there was $20,000 yearly left for these employees.

REGULATIONS OF TREASURY DRIVE LIQUOR TO SEA

Will No Longer be Permitted on Board
Foreign Vessels

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Beverage liquor, which found asylum aboard foreign merchant men in American waters after it had been shouldered from American soil by the Volstead act, now is officially driven out into the open sea.

After the stroke of midnight under regulations drafted by the treasury to make effective the mandate of the supreme court there is no substantial legal foothold for alcoholic drinks within the jurisdiction of continental United States ashore or afloat.

It was pointed out today that the regulations in the face of representations by most of the maritime powers of the world are to be applied as rigidly as a literal reading of the highest court's opinion will warrant.

Incoming vessels at sea when the effective hour arrives may bring liquor inside the three mile limit for the last time but it must remain under seal until the home-ward voyage is started. Ships in distress may seek refuge in American ports under the same condition and there is the usual exemption for medicinal, "diplomatic" and sacramental shipments. But in all other cases ships which cross the dead line must cast into Davy Jones' locker whatever intoxicants they have aboard.

BEWARE OF NEW YORK LAWYERS, STILLMAN SAYS

Former Wife of New York
Banker Warns Mrs.
Harris

(By The Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 9.—Mrs. James A. Stillman advised Mrs. Elaine Lee Harris to beware of New York lawyers in resisting the annulment suit instituted by her husband, Beverly D. Harris, Lee Meriwether, local attorney asserted Mrs. Harris had told him in testifying at a deposition hearing here this afternoon.

Mr. Meriwether was testifying at a hearing in suit for $3,000 for fees which he alleges Mrs. Harris owes him for services from June to October last year in connection with the annulment suit which is scheduled for hearing in New York next week. Mrs. Harris denies she ever employed Mr. Meriwether. Mrs. Stillman is the wife of the former president of the National City Bank of New York and Mrs. Harris' husband is a former vice president of the same institution. Both resigned their positions with the bank when their respective marital difficulties became public.

JEALOUSY CAUSED FILIPINO TO KILL HIS SWEETHEART

Says Friendship for Married Man Led to Murder

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 9.—Jealousy over the friendship of Blossom Martin, his sweetheart, with a married man led him to strangle her in the home of the doctor where they were both employed, Eluigo Lozade, a Filipino houseman, told the police today. The married man, whose name was not divulged, told the district attorney he had known the young girl for more than two years, during which time, he said, she had frequent quarrels with Lozade because she would not give up her friendship with him.

The dapper, under-sized Filipino was arrested in Staten Island early today as he bore the body, wrapped in a bundle much heavier than himself to a place of concealment in New Jersey. In his confession to the police Lozade said his jealous rage had centered on the dead girl's contention that he was financially unable to support a wife and he refused to listen to his pleadings last night.

With detectives looking on, Lozade re-enacted his crime in the doctor's home and showed how he bundled the body, jack-knife fashion in two portieres and heavy paper. Then always carrying the heavy burden in his arms, he traveled by taxi-cab and ferry to the Elizabethport Ferry on Staten Island where the strain began to tell and he was forced to ask a chauffeur to assist him.

His suspicion aroused, the chauffeur called a policeman, who arrested Lozade just as he tried to toss his human burden into the river. The Filipino fought fiercely for five minutes before he was subdued.

Lozade was employed as a houseman by Dr. G. B. McAuliffe, where the Martin girl also worked as an office attendant. She was formerly of Troy and was 22 years old. Her friends told the police today that she had complained several times that Lozade had threatened her life once with a revolver.

Device Makes Privacy On Radio Telephones

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 9.—Privacy has been made possible in radio telephonic conversation thru a device that scrambles words at the sending end so that to anyone listening in they are unintelligible and clarifies the tones to the person for whom the message is intended was announced today by the American Telephone & Telegraph company. The invention has been used successfully it was said over a thirty mile stretch of ocean between Los Angeles and Catalina Island.

The problem of obtaining privacy in radio conversation was solved by engineers of the Bell System it was asserted partly as a result of the post-war scarcity of cables for undersea use.

"The wireless talk bridge," said an engineer of the company, which has given satisfactory transmission across the 30 mile gap of water night and day since 1920, was designed to permit two way talking between the mainland and the island. Heretofore talks over the Catalina Island radio link have been picked up by amateur receiving stations in the region.

The privacy system was designed to remedy this. It is not claimed that the new system is absolutely secret. An ingenious person might devise a set which could listen to the system but such a set would be much more complicated than the ordinary set.

"The new radio attachment before putting the messages on the air will distort or 'scramble' them and no receiving set which is not specially designed to 'unscramble' them can obtain anything intelligible."

"At the time the radio apparatus was installed a submarine cable could have been laid joining the island and mainland which would have supplied a better grade of service at less expense, but the conditions at that time, which grew out of the war were such that the manufacture of cable would have involved a long delay."

The wireless link connects Catalina Island not only with Los Angeles, but also thru the trunk lines of the Bell system with every commercial center in the United States."

AGRARIAN CABINET WAS OVERTHROWN IN BULGARIA SATURDAY

Premier Stamboulsky is Taken Prisoner by Soldiers

(By The Associated Press)

SOFIA, Bulgaria, June 9.—The Agrarian cabinet headed by Premier Stamboulsky was overthrown early today, the plot being carried out by reserve officers with the assistance of the active army.

Altho there was no blood shed, the new regime proclaimed a state of siege. Professor Zankov of the Sofia University of Law, who was a part in constructing a new ministry which is credited with the intention of abandoning the legal proceedings carried out by Agrarian party against former cabinet ministers.

Premier Stamboulsky, who has been living in semi-retirement in a native village of Slavonia, returned to Sofia last night. On his arrival at the station he found troops drawn up and he was received in silence. When the premier asked for an explanation the officers ignored the question. He then tried to telephone to police headquarters to obtain an explanation but discovered the wires had been cut; then he understood he was a prisoner.

All the frontiers are closed and no trains are allowed to leave the capital. The military league which led the movement issued a statement this afternoon denying rumors of a general mobilization, it was said calm prevailed among the population making such a step unnecessary.

WILL USE SOLID SHOT ON RUM FLEET

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 9.—A fleet of twelve vessels, eight speedy scout boats and four revenue cutters armed with four inch guns and one-pounders, with orders to use real shots if their blanks do not bring obedience, will go in operation soon against the rum fleet off the Jersey Coast, the New York Times said it was informed tonight.

The fleet it was said will be operated by the coast guard. Five men will man each of the scouts according to the newspaper, a captain, an engineer and three able seamen who know how to operate guns. Their instructions are to first shoot a blank shell and then if necessary to shoot something solid.

CANADIAN FLEET OF RUM RUNNERS BUSINESS LIKE

Operates With Precision of a Fleet of Ocean Liners

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Mich., June 9.—Pettit Cote, a snug little harbor five miles down the Detroit River from Windsor, is the Canadian terminal for a mosquito fleet that daily transports from 2,000 to 3,000 cases of Canadian beer into the United States. The runners operate on business like principles. Their movements are guided with the same precision that might control a fleet of liners. There is none of the reported glamour of the Spanish Main.

The little craft that supply the thirsty of Detroit with beer are labeled "Seven Proof" and "Nine Proof" are mostly row-boats, rigged with outboard motors.

A slim youth clad in shabby clothes poked the nose of an old green motor-equipped row-boat into the slip of one of the Canadian brewing company's loading docks. Two men on the wharf handed down four half barrels, containing 16 gallons each and six quarter barrels of eight gallons each. He stowed them away on the floor of his craft. He spun the little motor and turned the craft around, heading it toward the American side. Then he halted the motor, let his ship drift into shore and slumped down to wait for orders.

While he rolled a cigarette he talked to newspapermen on the wharf.

The youth asked his audience if any one wanted to get some "stuff" across and volunteered a guarantee to land any cargo entrusted to him on the American side.

"This will be my fourth trip today," he said. "I carry an average of 40 cases, and get 50 cents a case. I have been running for three years and have never lost a bottle."

The most optimistic runners do not place the total shipments of beer at more than 15,000 gallons, and of whiskey 500 or 600 gallons a day. Officers on both sides claim these figures are far too high.

NORWEGIAN LUTHERANS CONSIDER PROBLEMS

(By The Associated Press)

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 9.—Problems of the individual sections were considered today at nine district meetings of delegates attending the triennial convention of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America.

If recommendations now before the general convention are adopted each district will become responsible for the support and administration of its own institutions and the district meetings discussed the situation peculiar to its own section with a view to determining the attitude to be assumed toward the proposals before the general meeting.

At some of the district meetings there were elections of officers but in many instances officers held over.

Tonight the alumni banquet of Luther College was held. Tomorrow organization affairs will be laid aside for general worship.

PROHIBITION LAWS ARE DANGEROUS—GRAY

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 9.—Application of American prohibition laws to foreign nations by the supreme court ruling enforcing the law on foreign ships in American harbors is dangerous to international comity, Sir Albert Gray, 26 years and until recently the committee of the British house of lords, declared today before he sailed for home.

Characterizing application of the Volstead act to foreign shipping as "rather amazing," Sir Albert declared that he agreed with the minority of the supreme court who dissented from the decision.

PRESIDENT HARDING IS GIVEN OVATION ON DELEWARE TRIP

Accompanied by Mrs. Harding Executive Traverses the State—Moved by Reception
President Breaks Resolve Not to Speak —Makes Five Addresses During the Day

(By The Associated Press)

MILFORD, Del., June 9.—The heart of Delaware was opened today to President and Mrs. Harding and an almost continuous ovation was given them as they traversed the state from Wilmington in the north to Lewes in the south.

President Harding reached Wilmington shortly after noon, firm in the declaration made to callers yesterday that he positively would make no addresses during the trip. An hour after he reached Wilmington, moved by the reception tendered him at a luncheon given by the Young Mens' Republican Club, he was making a speech, explaining that no man could remain dumb in the face of such a welcome.

Five other speeches followed before he boarded the presidential yacht Mayflower tonight at Lewes to cruise back to Washington, all briefly thanking those who gathered to welcome the party but all concluding with some emphatic assertion as to the duties of American citizens and the responsibilities of the American republic.

Mr. Harding there referred to information given him that Wilmington was faced by a scarcity of labor and said the city and cities confronted by similar conditions should be congratulated.

"While I am always sorry there are not ample workers," said the president, "I would rather have a situation in America in which there are three jobs for each workman rather than three workmen for the job."

The present situation in industry the president asserted was due to a realization by the American people that to cure post-war ills they all must get down to work and build anew. That same thing is what the world must do he added.

BODY OF ECCENTRIC RECLUSE FOUND IN SHACK BY NEIGHBOR

Police Say He Was Murdered More Than a Week Ago

(By The Associated Press)

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 9.—The body of James H. Sutton, 70, eccentric broker and real estate dealer who lived alone in a two room shack on the edge of the woods by the Puxtucket river in Lincoln Park, Warwick, was found tonight by his neighbor, A. W. Allen with whom he had been taking meals until nine days ago when he was to have gone to visit his brother Walter H. Sutton of Boston.

Police say the man was murdered more than a week ago. A bloodstained claw hammer and an empty 45 calibre cartridge shell was lying nearby. There was a bullet hole in the wall and a bullet was found lodged in the floor of the rear room.

A diamond ring Sutton always wore was missing. His pockets were turned inside out and $500 Allen said the victim had on June 1, when he was last seen alive, was gone.

KAW RIVER IS ON RAMPAGE

(By The Associated Press)

TOPEKA, Kans., June 9.—Police and fire departments here were instructed late today to have their full forces on duty tonight to patrol the dikes and for emergency services if the Kaw river goes out of its banks. A report from Wamego this afternoon stated that the river was out of its banks there. The bank full stage of 21 feet will be reached here before morning, S. D. Flora of the weather bureau said. The dikes will protect North Topeka up to 30 feet. Virtually all the rivers of Eastern Kansas were at flood stage today.

ROCK ISLAND MAN RE Elected HEAD OF LUTHERAN SYNOD

Dr. G. A. Brandelle Chosen from Field of Several Candidates

(By The Associated Press)

ROCKFORD, Ill., June 9.—Spirited contests marked election today of officials of Augustana Lutheran Synod.

Dr. G. A. Brandelle Rock Island was re-elected president from a field of several candidates on the second ballot. His closest competitors were:

Dr. S. G. Ohman, New York and Dr. P. A. Mattson, retiring vice-president and head of the Minnesota conference.

Other officers named are: Dr. P. A. Mattson, vice-president, re-elected.

Rev N. J. W. Nelson, Cloquet, Minn., secretary.

K. T. Anderson, Rock Island, treasurer.

The race between the Rev. Mr. Nelson and Dr. Joseph Anderson, Rockford, La., present incumbent for secretary was especially spirited. Four ballots were necessary for a choice.

A warning to Augustana synod not to repeat the error of German Lutherans by clinging to European languages too long, was voiced by Dr. J. A. Singmaster, president of Gettysburg, Pa., Theological Seminary. He said German Lutheran churches lost many of their best members by clinging to German in their pulpits too long.

Childless marriages came in for censure by Dr. Brandelle in his report today. A resolution deploring race suicide failed of passage after several leading members of the synod had claimed that this fault was not prevalent among church members in the denomination.

Dr. Brandelle also reported at length on educational, charitable and mission activities of the synod.

Tonight Rockford business men are entertaining officials and prominent delegates to the synod at a banquet.

Tomorrow Dr. Brandelle will ordain 25 candidates for the ministry, who passed examinations before the ministerium this week. Women's missionary society of the synod which is also holding meetings will elect officers Tuesday. The society today voted Mrs. Emmy Ewald, its president $500 for a trip to the Gothenburg celebration in Sweden next month.

NEWSPAPER ADS ARE BEST
When advertisers get together to talk things over, they are likely to say exactly what they mean. The value of newspaper advertising, therefore, appears to be thoroughly established, for the opinion of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, in recent convention, held at that the "most effective medium of publicity is advertisements in local newspapers."

This applies to everything to be advertised. Merchants are taking more and more to this form of advertising. Private individuals are finding it the quickest and cheapest way for them to effect changes of goods or purchases outside the usual ones made by regular dealers. Directors of public utilities are just beginning to discover the value of newspaper advertising to them.

One speaker on that subject advocated such advertising, urging published statements of the company's affairs and advertising talks with the consumer. "Publicity," he said, "to be effective must be continuous, sustained, day in and day out. Acquiring the good will if the public is like establishing a man's character." And this the newspaper advertisement helps any organization to do.

NO MORE RUSSIAN RELIEF
By the end of July the American Relief Administration will be withdrawn from Russia. The Russian government has been so notified. This will mark the end of one of the world's greatest adventures in humanity.

There still remain in Russia many problems of poverty, undernourishment, medical relief and caring for children orphaned by war of famine or Bolshevik ferocity, but the solving of these problems is now the duty of the Russian government and of the people themselves, since the coming Russian harvest will bring a plentiful food supply.

Americans generally will approve the withdrawal of the relief, just as they approved establishing it to meet the tremendous need in the Russian famine. So long as outside aid represented the only hope of saving millions of innocent victims, it was right that it should be sent generously, as it was. But now that the acute need is over, it is better for the Russians themselves.

SAVING THE C. P. and St. L.
(St. Louis Star)

Those Illinois citizens who courageously purpose saving their railway, the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis from an Interstate Commerce Commission edict for its destruction are getting very close to the attitude citizenship long ago should have held toward transportation.

They realize, those Illinois citizens, that the road is part of their undertaking to prosper. It represents a factor in their industrial and commercial affairs. Therefore, it is needed by them, and they earnestly set their hands against the Federal body and the receivership and the business management which would deprive them of the facilities contained in the C. P. and St. L.

It is sincerely to be hoped that the Illinoisans may win in the novel undertaking to so create public sentiment against scrapping of a pioneer independent rail system that the concern will be saved by them. They deserve to win, for they are in the right. Unquestionably the residents of the territory served by the road know better what its value to them is than do Federal officers who never visited the region, or railway managers not in sympathy with the people's domestic advancement.

Illinois editors have been called upon to foster sentiment for the preservation and continued operation of the C. P. and St. L. road.
The Illinois press well may turn to the task of saving one of the state's railroads. The people can be made to see the power they have in the matter. Once that is understood, the line will be safe. And how much better our railroading would now be, had the public taken this cooperative attitude toward it half a century ago—this determination to make transportation efficient and profitable because of its close relation to their own welfare.

SAM'S CUSTOMERS

NEA

Your pocketbook eventually may be affected by this very important business development: The tide of foreign trade has turned and the "balance of trade" has swung against the United States. That's how the economists express it. In similar words, our country is now buying more from foreign countries than it is selling to them.

In March, the latest month fully reported by the government, our exports totaled about 341 million dollars. That's what we sold to other countries. In the same month we bought (imported) 402 million dollars worth of goods.

This means that we are "out" 61 million dollars for March foreign trade. April will show another loss. And it is not improbable that the loss will become chronic despite anything that may be done to attempt to regain and hold the big trade lead we built during the war.

Our excess of imports over exports will soon become a political bone of controversy if it continues. Nothing pleases the average national politician more than to be able to shadow-box with the tariff.

To reason accurately on the subject, we must remember this: Since the beginning of the war, we have loaned foreign countries, particularly Europe, billions of dollars. It naturally was quite easy to build up a tremendous export business when we were willing to extend tremendous credits—supply our customers with money for buying.

We now have about half of the world's gold. There isn't enough gold left in Europe to pay us even 30 cents on the dollar, of what they owe us.

Any child with a fair knowledge of simple arithmetic can see, therefore, that the only way we can get back the money we loaned to foreign countries is to let them pay us in goods—materials—import more that we export.

It's a simple matter of merchandising. And any crossroads storekeeper knows that it doesn't do him any good to have an enormous business unless he gets paid for it. There is a limit to charge accounts in foreign trade, the same as with individuals buying at the grocery store or meat market.

The London banker, F. C. Goodenough, recently told the American Bankers' Association that, on account of tariff bars, Great Britain could pay her debt to America only by exporting from Canada or other British possessions raw material or supplies acceptable to the United States.

It doesn't matter much where the stuff comes from, but Americans soon will have to decide this:
Shall we go ahead doing foreign business on credit and supplying customers with money to buy from us? Or should we be content to import more than we export, as the only possible way to get paid for what we have already sold.

WILL GIVE BANQUET FOR W. H. STEVENSON

Professor William H. Stevenson of the Iowa State Agricultural college at Ames, Iowa, is to be an Illinois College commencement visitor this week. Professor Stevenson graduated from the college in the class of 1893. In the years when he was in school and college here he attended Westminster church and Sunday school, and in recognition of this fact the Men's Brotherhood of Westminster has planned a supper in his honor for next Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The ladies of the church will serve the banquet. Professor Stevenson has made large contributions to the science of agriculture. His work at Ames attracted such attention that he was appointed by President Harding to represent the U. S. at the international institute of agriculture held in Rome. During the period of a year that Professor Stevenson was in Rome he found opportunity to visit other areas in Europe and made a careful study of agricultural conditions there.
At the banquet at Westminster church he will make an address on "Some Present Day Currents of European Life." Friends of Professor Stevenson both men and women whether members of Westminster church or not, are invited to attend the banquet if they send notice in advance to Dr. Smith, pastor of Westminster. A moderate charge per cover will be made.

INTEREST IN GUNS FOR WHITE HALL PARK

One is Modern American Howitzer and Other Relic of Civil War—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, June 9.—There is renewed interest in the two guns that adorn Whiteside park with the spirit of patriotism that is carried over from the observance of Decoration Day and which imbue all plans for the observance of the Fourth of July on an elaborate scale that will renew the "Spirit of '76." The larger gun is an American 4.7 inch Howitzer that was obtained by the local post of the American Legion from the Rock Island arsenal in 1919. It stands guard near the flag pole at the southeast corner.

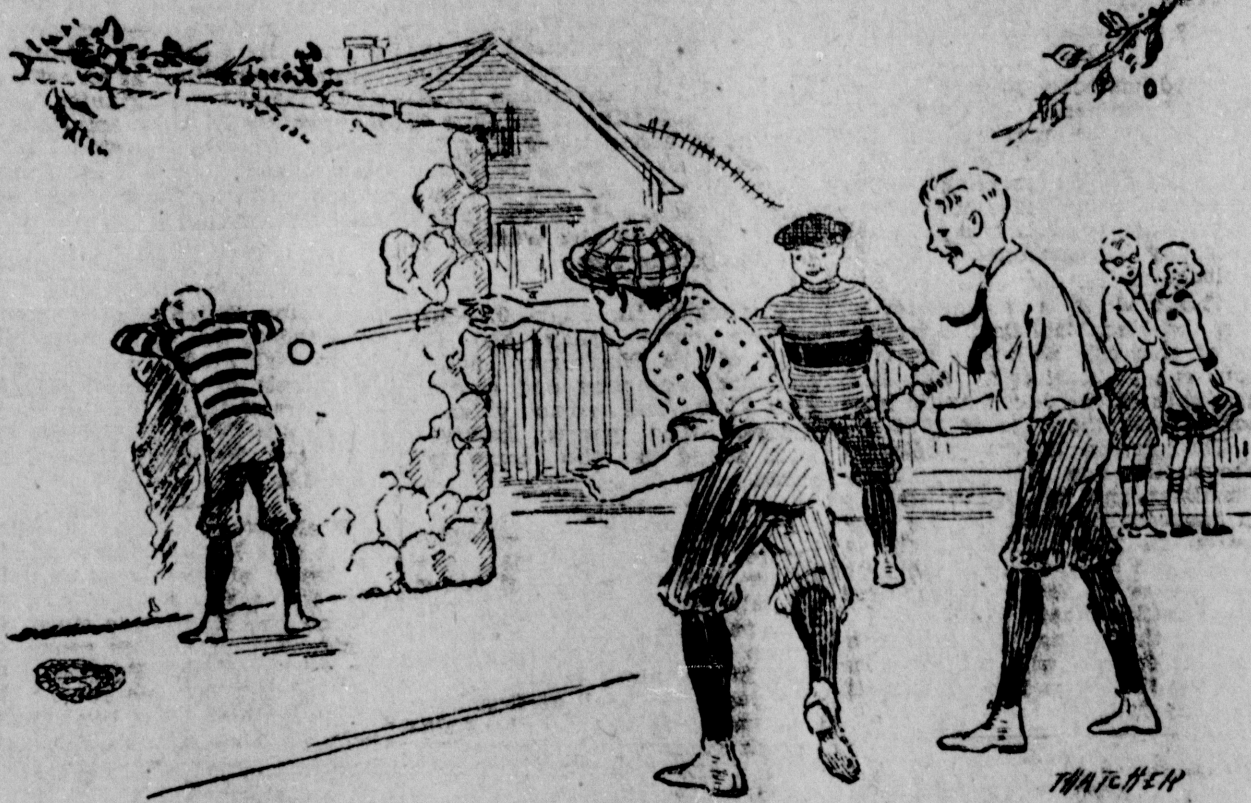

The smaller gun has important local history. This importance does not attach the fact that the gun points directly to the editorial office of the White Hall Register-Republican, but in a varied career that includes service in the Civil War and a score of less romantic but no less thrilling adventures since that time. It is of the 1860 vintage, and now occupies permanent quarters on a concrete base.

There is much confusion about this cannon, but all doubt as to the originality and service of the old gun has been removed through information furnished by Richard B. Winn, who has been a resident of White Hall since 1877, coming from Carrollton and bringing with him another cannon that has been the cause of the doubt and confusion as to the identity of the one that now adorns Whiteside Park. Mr. Winn names the late David Culbertson and the late Isaac D. Vedder as purchasers and original users of the gun.

The cannon was purchased in St. Louis from a firm with southern sympathies. The firm dealt in guns and sportsmen's goods for years before the Civil War and also afterward. Two cannon and a large consignment of Colts and other rifles were ordered by them to arm Camp Jackson, which had been established in the southwestern suburbs of St. Louis, but about the time of the arrival of the arms and munitions General Nathaniel Lyon swooped down on Camp Jackson and made the army gathered there prisoners of war before the goods could be delivered. The result was that the sporting goods firm had the lot left on hand, and for a time their store was under guard of General Lyons troops.

Finally, after administering the oath of allegiance to the members of the firm, the store and goods were released and allowed to be sold only under the authority of the military power. One of these two cannons was selected by David Culbertson and perhaps one or two other White Hall citizens, who purchased it, and is the same one that is now in Whiteside park. This was in 1862 or 1863. Mr. Culbertson and William Carr junior had charge of the gun, keeping it in their blacksmith shop, which was situated on the lot where the store of Raines and Raines now stands.

Those were troublesome times in this vicinity, especially north and east of White Hall various rumors of raids on the city kept the people in a nervous state for a long time. Regular details of loyal citizens patrolled the roads nightly, and the gun crew was always on hand at the blacksmith shop. However, the element that raided and tore up the C. and A. track between Manchester and

Games, Sports,
Play, StuntsThe Fun MakerReal Fun for Every OneSoak 'Em in "Soak Ball"

This is the game which will give you good throwing practice when the diamond is too wet for baseball work. A boy with a good pitching arm will have plenty of fun playing it.

The game is best played by four or more boys, though it is a good idea not to let more than ten in one game. Count out a player who is to be "it" and then find a good, solid fence or wall. The boy who is "it" stands against the wall, and as shown in the picture—and you can see what is going to happen to him. The "it" must keep his eyes shut.

After the one boy has taken his position against the wall, the other boys draw back about fifteen feet and toss the ball among themselves. Suddenly one of them catches it and lets fly at the player at the wall. Biff! He is hit. He turns immediately, opening his eyes, and tries to guess who threw the ball.

Must Guess Thrower
If he guesses correctly, the boy he names must take his station at the wall, but it is a hard matter to pick the right one as all of the boys laugh and talk after the ball is thrown and try to fool the player who has been hit.

Use a soft ball in this game—a tennis ball or one made from paper and rags tied together with string will do. It is against the rule to aim for a player's head, and any one who hits "it" on the head must change places with him.

If any one is hit three times and is still unable to guess right, he is out of the game and some one else is counted out to take his place.

(Next week The Fun Maker will describe a game that came all the way from China.)

SUM TO PAY SOLDIER BONUS WILL BE SHORT

Officials Believe Average Will be $220 Which is More Than Was Estimated—Will Take Over $71,000,000 on This Basis.

SPRINGFIELD.—Will $55,000,000 be enough money to pay all Illinois soldier bonus claims?

The question has arisen with the discovery that the claims average higher than it was believed they would. The average individual sum that will be paid on the claims thus far verified is $220. It has been estimated by various authorities that there will be a total of about 325,000 claims.

If this proves true, that is if there are 325,000 applications and they continue to average $220 each, it will require something over $71,000,000, it is calculated.

The Service Recognition board now has on hand 230,000 applications for the bonus. At the average rate of $220 each, which has been maintained for the first few thousand, this would require $50,600,000 to pay the claims already on hand.

Officials of the board do not believe the claims will average $220 throughout nor that the number of claims will go over 300,000. The disclosure of the present high average merely means, they state, that a shortage of funds is possible but not probable.

William MacCauley, past department commander of the American Legion, who has been here watching legislation of interest to the Legion, stated that there was no need of any former service man worrying about whether he would get his money.

"We'll worry about getting more money when we come to that," he said. "If we need more money, we'll get it."

The Service Recognition Board has enough claims on hand to keep the office force busy for many months. Under the law, claimants will have a year and a half in which to file their claims, so the board will have to be kept alive for that period.

According to Palmer D. Eamunds, chief clerk of the board, his department will be in readiness to start payments by July 1.

PEACH BELT DAMAGED BY GEORGIA STORM

Macon, Ga., June 9.—A tornado followed by a hailstorm did heavy damage in the peach belt in the vicinity of Montezuma, Ga., today. The property damage is estimated at $100,000 by state and federal government officials who also estimated 20,000 crates of peaches were destroyed.

Ehnie's week end special, "Cherry Macroon." It's good.

MILLIONS ADDED TO AUTOMOBILE TAXES IN CENTRAL STATES

Chicago, (AP).—Millions of dollars will be forthcoming from the pockets of motorists in a number of middle western states during the coming year as the result of laws passed by legislatures of the winter and spring.

Texas appears to have passed the most radical increase. It is estimated that $10,500,000 additional will come from the pockets of motorists and wholesalers of gasoline. Two taxing measures dealing with automobiles were passed in Texas. One placed a one cent tax on each gallon of gasoline sold by wholesale dealers, while the other revised the present system of motor license fees and increases them approximately 100 per cent. It is estimated that the gasoline tax will net the state $2,500,000 and the license fee increase will bring $8,000,000.

Indiana now has a law imposing a tax of two cents a gallon in gasoline, estimated to yield $3,000,000 yearly. This will be devoted to good road purposes. In addition the legislature passed a law effective next January 1, increasing the license tax on automobiles.

In Oklahoma a tax of 1 cent a gallon on gasoline was included in a bill passed by the legislature. This is expected to yield $900,000 annually. In Oklahoma City, an ordinance recently passed puts the charge for a city license at 50 cents and is expected to yield $18,000 to the city.

Tax legislation in Kentucky, passed in 1922, which became effective this year is expected to net $300,000 to the state.

In Ohio 87 bills directly affecting automobile owners were introduced in the legislature, but the only one that was passed increased the tax on trucks.

Only one state showed a decrease. This was in Minnesota where the method of taxing was changed. It was estimated that while the average car tax for last year was $17, the average for this year will be $16.44. However the legislature passed a bill to submit a constitutional amendment to the voters at the next regular election authorizing the legislature to fix a tax on gasoline.

In both Michigan and Iowa a tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline was passed by the legislature but was vetoed by the governors.

In Iowa a law was passed placing motor bus and truck transportation lines under the supervision of the state railroad commission while a ton-mile tax was imposed on these lines to draw from them a contribution to the state highway maintenance fund. A law was also passed requiring that automobile registration fees be based upon current list prices.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS END OUTING

Three Groups Spent Week Happily at Rotary Club Cottage—Story of Activities Told.

Camp Fire girls returned to Jacksonville Saturday afternoon after a very happy week at the Rotary Club cottage at Mercedosa. One of the girls penned the following story of the week:

"The camp at the Rotary club house was great fun this year. In everything from kitchen police to volleyball there was plenty of enthusiasm. The girls, members of the Oklahe, Galapka and Aokiya camp fires, have been in camp all week divided into four groups. The Baby Hippoes had Margaret Stubblefield as leader and Ruth Leavenworth as group advisor; 'Jazz Babies,' Katherine Goebel, leader, Caroline Doane advisor; 'Snappy Sevens,' Elizabeth Acom, leader, Margaret Marshall, advisor; 'Lightning Lickers,' Helen Dial, leader, Tolnete Cully, advisor.

"Camp inspection has been held every morning with keen competition, and the 'Baby Hippoes' won the honors. The camp paper with Abbie Lee Young as editor-in-chief, was a very modern publication. A tongue twister contest was conducted in the paper with Katherine Goebel as the winner.

"Life at camp did not have a dull minute. One day Mr. Riley and his daughter Margaret were camp guests and treated us both to strawberries and a motor boat ride. Wednesday Dr. Brokaw gave a talk on health and hygiene, and Wednesday evening we were in the audience at the Mercedosa picture theatre.

"The 'Baby Hippoes' won in the championship volleyball ball contest, members of the team being Margaret Stubblefield, Olive Bray, Leah Tayman, Eleanor Andre, Dorothy Terhune and Ruth Leavenworth. In base ball the 'Jazz Babies' also won, with the 'Snappy Sevens' second and the 'Lightning Lickers' third. Here are some of the winners in the track meet:

"25 yard dash—First, Katherine Kamm; second, Margaret Stubblefield.
"Three legged race—First, Abbie Lee Young and Virginia Terhune; second, Elizabeth Goodale and Elizabeth Wainwright.

"Then came contests by groups. The 'Jazz Babies' winning the meet with 35 points, the 'Lightning Lickers' second with 20 points. Thursday was stunt night and it was one of the very best of the week. The judges had a hard time in deciding to which group the honors belong. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Acom, Mr. and Mrs. Berger and daughter Geraldyn, were guests of the evening.

"Friday morning groups 2 and 4 played their final volleyball game with group 4 winning, this gaining third place in the tournament. The feature of Friday afternoon was a swimming and life saving demonstration by Miss Lucille Stevens of the Morgan county health department.

"Friday evening a camp ceremonial was held under the direction of Mrs. G. E. Stienkey as guardian. Lucy Jones was taken into the Galapka camp fire and Bernice Henry into the Oklahe, and Dorothy Terhune was made a wood gatherer.

"After a most impressive ceremonial about the open camp fire the girls sang songs, accompanied by the ukulele and comb orchestra. Later on they were treated to ice cream cones and refreshments by Mrs. W. S. Jones.

"Saturday morning an aquatic meet was held in which group 4 carried off the honors with group 2 and 2 coming second and third.

"At noon Saturday the result of the week's competition in athletics, stunts, kitchen police and personal inspection was announced. Groups 2 and 3, captained by Katherine Goebel and Elizabeth Acom, were tied with 19 points each. Group 4, captained by Helen Dial, won second place with 16 points and Margaret Stubblefield's group came in fourth with 12 points.

"Camp broke immediately after dinner upon the arrival of a fleet of automobiles which came to take the campers back home. They all left with the conviction that this year's camp has a little the edge on all of previous years."

Novelty Sweaters Now Parade in Most Bewildering Array

By JULIA BOTTOMLEY

Knitted art has grown out of the experimental stage into a plane triumphant. Before our admiring eyes a panorama of wondrous knitted garments is furnishing a continuous style program wherein decorative scheme and novelty are playing a leading part.

What with this brilliant demonstration in the way of knitted tops no wonder the fashion public is tuned to the highest pitch of expectancy. Nor has the stylist been found wanting. That the challenge has been accepted by the designers of knitted underwear, is evident, as the pageantry of handsome garments continues to unfold before our admiring eyes.

Interest ever centers about the sweater and this season tells a story of unabated achievement. In the instance of the fanciful sweater herewith pictured, the novelty vest is the outstanding style note. The body of this chic sweater is gray, its neutral tone accenting the gay orange and blue checks of the vest. Study well the sleeves; they are a departure from the ordinary, the distinguishing feature being cuff bands supporting a forearm fullness.

By the way, a sweater is only the initial entrant on the program of things knitted required for a summer's enjoyment. There is, for instance, those altogether irresistible little knitted gowns known as the "Country club dance frocks." No aspirant to good dressing can afford to struggle through a summer's program without one. These appeal to the most fastidious taste, in their alluring colors, and they partake of the formal party type in that they are sometimes sleeveless, and are knitted in fanciful stitch with clever introduction of tinsel or embroidery effects.

Charming effects as "organdie wool" in lace design are shown in lovely new colors such as bluebell, old coral, Egyptian green, violet silver and honey-dew yellow. (© 1923, Western Newspaper Union.)

"Old Man" Collins is Throwing Surprise in The American League

Has Stolen Nineteen Bases and Boosted His Batting Average to .370 in the Past Week—Mokan is Coming Up in the National—Leading Batters in Minor Leagues

CHICAGO, June 9.—Eddie Collins, veteran second baseman of the White Sox, is still king of the keystone guardians in the American League. Collins has so upset the dope and that those who pictured him an old man, are standing back in awe. According to figures compiled today which include games of last Wednesday, he has stolen 19 bases, just one less than he pilfered for the entire season last year. By cracking out eleven hits in his last six games Collins has boosted his average from .349 to .370 and is pressing the leaders, who have participated in 30 or more games. He is now fourth. Harry Heilmann of the Tigers, continues to top the regulars with .426, with "Muddy" Ruel, of Washington, the runner-up, with .382. Dick Reichle, the former University of Illinois star, with the Red Sox is trailing Ruel with .375. Collins is also pressing Wamby of the Indians for the honors in sacrifice hits. Wamby is leading with 16, and Collins has 14.

Babe Ruth, failed to add to his string of homers during the past week, but remains out in front with eleven. He also leads in total bases with 107 and in runs scored with 42. Other leading batters: Burns, Boston .370; Jamieson, Cleveland, .366; Cobb, Detroit .356; Myatt, Cleveland .352; Ruth, New York, .347; S. Rice, Washington, .342; Tobin, St. Louis, .339; Miller, Philadelphia, .336; Serevird, St. Louis, .331; Hancy, Detroit, .326; Williams, St. Louis, .325.

National League
Johnny Mokan, of the Phillies, is challenging the leaders in the National League for the batting honors, and along with Jimmy Lottmeyer, of the St. Louis Cardinals, are giving Zack Wheat of Brooklyn and Charley Grimes of the Pirates an interesting race. Mokan boosted his mark from .375 to .390 during the past week and Lottmeyer is hitting .353 compared with .376 a week ago. The

O'CONNELLS ARE HERE AGAIN TODAY

Indees Will Try to Take Contest—Massinkoff to Play with pointed Pled Captain

The O'Connell's of Springfield are returning today for another game with the Indees and as they won the other two games by close scores the local boys have more or less got their "dander" up and are determined to do their best to stop these cocky birds from the capital city. To that end Manager Smith has made quite a few changes in his lineup for today's game.

E. J. Christopher has been appointed Captain of the Indees and will control the play while on the field. "Kissey" is not only a ball player but is also popular alike with the fans and the players. On account of Wheeler wrenching a ligament in his leg last Sunday "Kissey" will fill in at first base.

Massinkoff the flash from the School for the Deaf team will make his initial bow in an Indees uniform and should show well considering his wonderful performances with the school team. Young Doyle who is the son of Umpire Tom Doyle will be held in reserve on the pitching staff as he seems to show promise of becoming a real pitcher. The complete lineup will be: Massinkoff, cf; Ruble, rf; Fanning, ss; Kohlhoff, 2b; Christopher, (Capt) 1b; DeFries, lf; Burkery, 3b; Clark, c; Wright and Doyle, p.

The O'Connell's will play Wilkin, lf; Killeumings, 3b; Olive, cf; James, rf; Ford, c; Dorgan, ss; Rossier, 2b; Farrell, 1b; Hartman or Keibie, p.

The Indees will appear in today's game in new suits which have been donated by Mr. Bockerman of the Hum clothing store on the north side of the square, who is a rabid baseball fan.

On Monday Manager Smith will start the canvas for the sale of tickets for next Saturday and Sunday's games with the Plano Indians. It was necessary to guarantee this team 1500 paid admissions and it is up to the local fans to see that he is not stuck, as this team is travelling in the fastest of the semi-pro classes and going good. In case of rain the tickets which are being sold at the regular price will be redeemed at any of the following games this season at the park.

The Plano team has four real honest-to-goodness Injuns in their lineup and they are not carried for this reason but for the reason that they are players who have made a reputation for real baseball in big company. A number of the players have served considerable time in the major leagues within the past few years and know what constitutes a real game.

ADD MANY WORKERS ON ILLINI STADIUM

Urbana, Ill.—Don't go near the University of Illinois Stadium if you look as if you might be a carpenter. They are likely to grab you and put you to work. But if you happen to belong to this craft and are looking for steady employment, you'll be sitting pretty.

For the race to complete the seats in the stadium by November 1, the University of Illinois has added to the large gang on the job.

As stadium construction goes into high speed, a better idea of the immensity of the task can be obtained. The carpenters are needed to convert 404 miles of lumber six inches wide into the forms in which concrete will be poured. And the bricklayers will handle 4,800,000 bricks. More brickmasons are being put to work.

Most of the lumber for the seats to be placed on the concrete has arrived. There will be 322 miles of lumber six inches wide in the seats.

The excavation for the playing field is well finished and the drainage will soon be installed. The field will be sodded and made ready for the tread of the football warriors next fall.

On the west stand 17 balcony gridders out of 28 are in position and steel erection is considered well on its way.

It is going to take some hustling to have the seats ready for 55,000 people in November—but the job can be done unless unforeseen obstacles are encountered. All over the United States alumni are watching. There are 19,000 subscribers and as the time for the opening approaches their interest shows by increased payments of subscription.

BENTLEY IN GREAT FORM BEATS PIRATES
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 9.—Bentley was in great form today and New York won from Pittsburgh, 6 to 0, before one of the largest crowds over jammed into Forbes field. The crowd overflowed to the field making ground rules necessary. It was the first time this season that a left hander started against the Pirates and won.

They're After British Open Cup

WALTER HAGEN IS THE BRITISH OPEN CHAMP AND INTENDS TO HANG ON TO THE CUP

The rear guard of golfism has drawn up to join the American invading forces in quest of the British open title at Troon, Scotland, on June 12.

Departure of "Long Jim" Barnes, Johnny Farrell and Leo Diegel completed the American contingent in the British classic. On the other side they meet up with Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen and Charley Hoffman.

Outside the fact that Jack Hutchinson has been unsuccessful in obtaining a leave of absence from his club, the American team will make a supreme effort to retain possession of the cup which was brought to this country last year by Walter Hagen.

With Sarazen and Farrell to take the place of Hutchinson and the addition of Hoffer and Diegel, the American team should be far more dangerous than it was last year.

As in Sarazen's case, this will be Farrell's first year on the British links. With Barnes it is an old story. Born on the other side he has made three returns for the open cup. He finished sixth on two occasions and last year fell within a single shot of the "Mug."

Last year Hagen and Hutchinson fared with Barnes and the three practically made a clean sweep of everything in their way, Hagen being the winner. The first time in history a home-bred golfer succeeded in coping the treasured trophy. Barnes came second until Duncan, the Hagen of the British Isles came along and tied things up. Hutch finished fourth.

With Sarazen it is different. This being his first offense on the wind-swept courses of England. But great things are expected of the boy flash since his great showing of last year when he won the American Open, the G. P. A. title and the unofficial "world's championship" from Walter Hagen.

The struggle at Troon ought to be between Walter Hagen and Duncan, the two outstanding stars of today. Just as Hagen dominates the field in the States, so does Duncan abroad.

In the British open of 1922, Walter Hagen finished first with 300 and Duncan was second with 301.

As in Sarazen's case, this will be Farrell's first year on the British links. With Barnes it is an old story. Born on the other side he has made three returns for the open cup. He finished sixth on two occasions and last year fell within a single shot of the "Mug."

Take Contest After Eleven Innings of Brilliant Play—Game Was a Pitchers' Battle Between Horton and G. Carlson—Massinkoff Drives Over the Winning Run

Coach Burns' Illinois School for the Deaf team defeated the Hyde Park high school team on Illini field yesterday afternoon by a score of 2 to 1 after eleven innings of hard battling.

The visitors played the game with only eight men. Only nine men had planned to make the trip and one of them missed the train. Coach Burns offered to loan them a player but the rules of the Cook County High school association are so stiff that a student who accompanied the team was afraid to play because of being over the age allowed by the rules.

Despite this handicap Hyde Park put up a brilliant battle. The great pitching of Horton backed by excellent fielding kept victory from the I. S. D. men until the eleventh frame. Horton is one of the best high school pitchers seen here in many months. He had good control and lots of stuff. He fanned 15 men and walked one.

Brilliant support was given him by Hannaway, who held the log and Brown, Davidson and Pelley in the field. Hannaway's work was particularly good and he also got a triple off Carlson and scored the visitors only one run.

George Carlson was not far behind Horton in the pitching line. It looked like he was afraid to put all the stuff he had on the ball, relying rather on a charge of pace and curve ball with good control. Carlson struckout seven men and did not issue a pass.

Excellent support was given by E. Carlson back of the bat and Massinkoff, Miller, Dillard and Cole.

The teams battled along on even terms for the full nine frames. In several of them each team had men on base but good pitching or sharp fielding kept the runners from denting the pan.

In the tenth Hannaway scored the only run for the visitors. I. S. D. came right back and tied it up in their half. In the tenth after blanking Hyde Park the local team scored the winning run with a double brought home Dillard with the winning run. The score:

JOE RAY FAILS TO LOWER RECORD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 9.—A heavy track, chilly temperature and a drizzling rain conspired against Joe Ray today and ruined his chances and hopes to break the world's record for the mile at the open handicap track meet conducted at the Harvard Stadium under the auspices of the Harvard Athletic association. The little Chicagoan covered his distance in four minutes 27 3-5 seconds as compared with the mark of four minutes 12 3-5 seconds, established in the same track in 1915 by Norman S. Taber. Old timers, however, were agreed that conditions under which Taber made his record was much more favorable than today. Ray was clocked at the quarter in 59 3-5 seconds; at the half in 2:07 2-5 and at the three-quarters mark at 3:18.

HARTNETT NEARLY PULLS MERKLE PLAY

Starts for Club House Instead of Touching Second Base—Cubs Nose Out Braves 4 to 3

CHICAGO, June 9.—Arnold Stutz's hard smash to left field sent Heathcote across the plate in the ninth inning, breaking a tie score and giving Chicago its second straight victory over Boston today, 4 to 3. Hartnett, however, narrowly prevented the victory by almost repeating the famous Merkle play of failing to touch second base.

With Heathcote on third and Hartnett on first and two out Stutz shot a drive to left field, scoring Heathcote, but Hartnett thinking the game was over started for the club house. He had almost reached the third base line when the Chicago players rushed him, waving, shouting and pointing to second base. Hartnett started back and reached the base just a fraction before the ball was relayed to the bag.

ILLINOIS TRACK TEAM WINS GREAT PRAISE

Winning Meet in Which Eight Old Records Were Broken Is Quite a Feast—Comparison with Records in Midwest Meet

All this past week the performance of the Illinois College track team in winning the annual Intercollegiate meet on June 2nd has been the subject of much favorable comment. To win the meet in competition with 15 other colleges is a creditable performance. To win a meet in which eight of the 15 old records were broken and one tied adds still more to the laurels of the Illinois College team.

On May 26th the Midwest Conference held a meet in Galesburg.
Beloit, Ripon and Lawrence from Wisconsin; Carleton and Hamline from Minnesota; Coe and Cornell from Iowa; Knox and Millikin from Illinois, competed in this meet. All of these colleges are at least twice the size of Illinois college. They are the "select"
of their respective states.

A perusal of the list of events given below will show that the meet held here a week ago, in which the Illinois College boys staged such a sensational finish by winning the meet when they stepped the mile relay in record time, was a faster contest than was the Midwest meet.

In eight of the 15 events the performances made here on Illinois field a week ago were better than those staged at Galesburg. In two events the performances were identical. In five events the Midwest athletes excelled.

The comparison clearly shows that the meet held here was a classier event than the Midwest contest. All the more credit and honor to the Illinois College boys who were the best of a classy lot of athletes.

Those who were on Illinois field a week ago yesterday afternoon will long carry a vivid recollection of the great relay racing done by Johnston, the Girard boy; Rogers, the Litchfield runner; Walker, the Flor-flyer, and Weber, the Jacksonville speed demon. Wonderful to contemplate, this team will be intact again next season.

Law's Waiting for Crooks in Shelby

SHERIFF BENJAMIN, LEFT, AND CHIEF ALSOP RIGHT

By Bill Breitenstein
(NEA Service Writer.)

SHELBY, Mont.—Ye pickpockets and glib-tongued "com" men!
Here's a little tip.

Better steer clear of Shelby's
Fourth of July celebration.
For the law, with bracelets newly oiled, is waiting for you.

Chief of Police Shelton Alsop and Sheriff H. E. Benjamin have your numbers. So watch your step.

Alsop and Benjamin are directing the policing of Shelby and the Dempsey-Gibbons fight arena.
Detachments of the Montana
National guard, specially deputized members of the American Legion, Pinkerton and Burns' operatives, detectives from the big cities and a retinue of railroad special agents are going to help them uphold the law.

Lieutenant Ray Gaunt, identification officer for the Great Falls

Police department, will be on the job with a slough of Bertillon records.

A federal and state prohibition officer and Deputy United States marshalls will keep their eyes peeled for purveyors of pre-Volteerian beverages.

"We're going to combine the systems of state and city enforcement with a certain type of military discipline," explains Chief Alsop.
"The national guard will give the military aspect, while the Legion men will serve mainly in guarding and patrolling capacities.
The railroad detectives, and the men from other cities will aid us in spotting undesirables."

But Major James Johnson doesn't expect any trouble.

"Montana crowds," he says, "always are well behaved. There will be more gentlemen per square foot than you ever saw at a fight.
If they're any rough-necks around,
they'll not be Montanans."

in about a week and the books off the press at an early date. The superintendents of the various departments are getting their copy material to Mr. Gibson with commendable speed.

ZEV WINS OLD BELMONT STAKES

NEW YORK, June 9.—Zev, son of The Finn-Miss Kearney, carried the Rancocas Silks to victory today in the old Belmont Stakes, and established himself as the top of the 1923 three year old division. The came courage and dash that marked his triumphs in the Kentucky Derby and in the Withers carried the sturdy Ran-cocas colt under the wire an easy winner.

Harry Payne Whitney's Chick-vale finished second a length and a half behind Zev and Rialto, of the Green Tree Stable, which ran coupled with Chickvale was third, four lengths away from Chick-vale. Zev's time, 2 minutes and 19 seconds was exceptionally good for the mile and three furlongs considering the condition of the track which was slow and dead.
Zev's earnings were increased $38,- 000 by the victory.

ALL IN READINESS FOR STATE ENCAMPMENT OF SPANISH WAR VETS

First Large Contingent to Arrive Will be the Chicago Delegates Who Will Come on a Special Train Wednesday Evening—Program for Three Days' Sessions is Outlined

The first large contingent for the annual State Encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans will arrive on Wednesday night in a special train from Chicago and will number approximately two hundred and fifty delegates and alternates of the U. S. W. V. and the Ladies' Auxiliary. It is highly probable that small parties from other points will arrive all during the day Wednesday as it has generally been the case at other Encampments for a great many visitors to arrive ahead of time in order to be able to visit the city where the Encampment is being held.

Two hundred reservations have already been received and more are daily coming in from both women and men delegates, 134 ladies having already reserved quarters at the School for the Deaf.

Attention is again called to the fact that rooms for visitors other than delegates will undoubtedly be in great demand and any who can take care of one or more visitors will confer a very great favor on the local camp if they will immediately list their rooms at the Chamber of Commerce.

A force of ten men will begin tomorrow morning the construction of a platform 24x32 at the Fair Grounds for the staging of the circus acts and frame work back of the stage for the immense fireworks display. There has been some comment among the citizens on the fact that there will be a gate charge for the circus and fireworks on the nights of the 14th and 15th. The local camp being in its infancy and having no available funds to any great extent in their local treasury the matter has been arranged in a display of so great a magnitude as this will be. On request the entertainment committee have issued the following statement:

In order to provide entertainment for the delegates and visitors to the Encampment of the Spanish War Veterans on the night of June 14th and 15th, the entertainment committee of the local camp has made arrangements with the Minter Show Company to give a circus and elaborate fireworks in the fair grounds, the committee furnishing the grounds, platform, the lights and ticket-takers; the show company furnishing the committee tickets for all delegates to the encampment and one hundred additional tickets. Had the committee purchased fire works that are displayed, it would have necessitated the out-lay of $2200, which they were unable to do with the funds available. No one connected with the Spanish War Veterans or the American Legion or anyone in Jacksonville are to participate in any profit that may be made nor to sustain any loss that may result from the giving of this show and fireworks, but it was done simply to provide entertainment for the delegates at a very small cost on the part of the committee.

The downstate observance of the 25th anniversary of the War with Spain will be held on Thursday afternoon on the lawn at the Deaf School and will be an event that will be appreciated by every patriot in the city. A wonderfully interesting program will be carried out and the public is very earnestly requested to turn out in honor of the boys who helped to fight the war which was principally a war for humanity out of sympathy for downtrodden people. The special program for the afternoon is given:

ENGINEER OUTLINES PLAN FOR PRESERVING OF LINCOLN'S HOME

A Little White Cottage Set in a Frame of Imposing Buildings, is Idea—Myron H. West Presents Plan After Years of Labor—Typifies Real Spirit of Lincoln.

Springfield—A little white cottage beside a marble walled pool and set in a frame of imposing public buildings is an engineer's idea of how Lincoln's home, one of Springfield's two most cherished possessions, should be preserved for all time.

"The heart of the state" is what City Planner Myron H. West calls the spot around which he had plotted a radical design of city planning. After years of labor he has just presented his plan to the City Planning and Zoning commission, which has taken the responsibility of shaping Springfield into the city they conceive it should be as the capitol of the state and former home of Lincoln.

Near the center of Springfield, Mr. West proposes to clear away eight city blocks surrounding the old Lincoln homestead at the northeast corner of Eighth and Jackson streets. This cleared space would be the civic center of the capital city. Here would be built a magnificent city hall, a court house, a public library, and most unique of all an open air theatre.

"The open air theatre or forum about the house to protect as in would typify, above all things, the real spirit of Lincoln," said Mr. West. "He as the most forceful speaker since St. Paul. He was a champion of freedom of speech and of the right of all people to express themselves. This trait would be commemorated by a place where public speaking, could be featured."

Then beside the Lincoln home would be constructed a water panel or pool about two city blocks in length. The space would be landscaped with the proper trees shrubbery, so that it would become a park in the heart of Springfield.

"Here would be the real heart of Illinois," said Mr. West. "The cottage nestling beside the stately civic structures, would be symbolic of protection the state and nation would desire to throw about this sacred spot. Not stone walls a new governor's mansion on the west, and a boulevard connecting all these, including the state capitol, with the Lincoln tomb on the north. Many suggestions are included for the commercial development of Springfield to a city of 200,000.

OLD TIME WHALE HUNTING IS SHOWN
Sensational Whale Hunt Shown in "Down to the Sea in Ships," at Luttrell's This Week.

What will be written in screen history as a masterpiece of its kind is offered in Elmer Clifton's "Down to the Sea in Ships"—a romance of the golden days of whaling. Taking more than a year to produce, it presents mute testimony that anything extraordinary in production cannot be achieved by working per schedule. Here is a picture which includes the richest kind of atmosphere, local color, detail and romance. It is authentic because Clifton went up to the whaling city, New Bedford, and gained the co-operation of its people. The director has gotten away from the beaten path.

While the picture brings forth the whaling industry of the fifties with its dramatic moments revolving around this vital enterprise of yesterday, there is also interwoven a romance, the background of which is colored with a rich glamour. The relics and heirlooms of the dead past live again with all their picturesque atmosphere. It serves as an education as well as an entertainment. Everything, seemingly, has been done to make it complete with the color and detail of the period in which it is laid. Pains-taking care is behind every touch—every incident. It's a heart story as well as a graphic one. And because it is so unusual in theme, characterization and production, it will be talked about as one of the sensations of the year. The photography is exceptional, and the acting is genuine.

"This was the only house Lincoln ever owned. Here his children were born and reared. Here he became a national possession. Of all the Lincoln shrines, it is the one which should be preserved with a magnitude commensurate with the place Lincoln holds in the world. In this house the impulses that made Lincoln great doubtless took shape and it is eminently fitting that the home that was his should have an architectural framing that will stir the impulses of the nation."

Other elements of Mr. West's plan include a larger union station at the east end of the city,

PETROGRAD HOPES TO REGAIN POSITION LOST THROUGH WAR

Had Population of 2,000,000 During War—This Dwindled to Less Than a Million During Revolution—People are Now Coming Back and Factories are Running.

Petrograd, (AP)—Petrograd has come back to the million population class. A recent police census showed the city has 1,065,000 inhabitants, as compared with 740,000 in 1920.

Although still almost dead industrially in comparison with its war-time status, Petrograd in general is beginning to "come back."

During the war days Petrograd had more than 2,000,000 people. After the Bolshevik revolution the capital was moved to Moscow and thousands of government employees and factory workmen were evacuated. The lean and hungry years of the revolution brought about a further decrease in the population, many of the people going to the country districts where food was cheaper and more plentiful.

Two years ago Petrograd merited the predictions of foreign observers that it would be a city as dead as Pompeii. But the past year has brought a tremendous change. Factories are being reopened, the port is in operation, and thousands of persons are returning to the city.

Many of them have come from Moscow, which is so overcrowded with its 2,500,000 people in a city built for 1,000,000, that it is almost impossible to find a place to sleep. In Moscow one cannot get a spacious apartment for love or money; in Petrograd there are many of them. And so hundreds of Moscow businessmen whose work keeps them in the capital, have sent their families to Petrograd where they can live comfortably.

While it does not seem probable that there is any immediate chance of the Bolshevik government moving the capital back to Petrograd, nevertheless, some institutions which help to overwork Moscow are to be moved to Petrograd this summer. This will further increase the population. Business conditions in Petrograd, however, do not seem as bright as they were last summer. Scores of shops closed during the winter because of high taxation, and the broad Nevsky Prospect presents a panorama of closed and shuttered stores. It is expected that port operations in the summer will bring about an improvement in business.

The whale is sighted! The small boats are launched for the chase! The harpoon is thrown and the leviathan of the deep pulls the small boat through the water at express train speed! BUT—The animal turns and charges his captors! What happens is one of the greatest thrills ever recorded in screen history!

"First came THE BIRTH OF A NATION, which astounded all of us. Then THE FOUR HORSEMEN OF THE APOCALYPSE, which startled us. This was followed by WAY DOWN EAST, a production that thrilled us; but it remained for Down to the Sea in Ships to overwhelm us!" It contains the supreme thrill of picture history.

What You Should Know

It took 18 months to produce this stupendous film drama, more than two months of which were spent cruising in the Caribbean Sea in pursuit of whales. The oldest whaling vessel afloat, the "Charles W. Morgan," was used in the filming of the picture, manned by a crew of 21 men and two mates, all of whom were expert whalers, under the command of Captain Tilton, a whaleman of 40 years' experience. On the cruise in the Caribbean, 11 huge whales were attacked, in which the lives of the crew and actors were in constant jeopardy. Three whaleboats were smashed to bits by maddened whales during the filming of the picture, endangering the lives of the crew not only by the attack of the huge mammals, but by the man-eating sharks which infested the waters. The whole town of New Bedford, Mass., co-operated in the production of "Down to the Sea in Ships."

There never has been, there may never be again, a motion picture that for sheer daring overwhelms the spectator in the manner of "Down to the Sea in Ships." Here is nature at her mightiest; a slip spells death, and events well nigh unbelievable in their terror-inspiring results take place apparently within a few feet of the astounded audience.

An Astounding Realism

A frail boat and its six occupants towed at express-train speed toward three thousand miles of open water, through a sea lashed into foam by a maddened whale. A sudden turn; a shout, "Look out, he's heading for us!" The oars are splintered along one side of the whaleboat; before the startled crew can back-water, the monster of the deep is upon them! A flip of its death-dealing "flukes," and both craft and its occupants are tossed high in the air. The boat falls back into the sea a battered wreck, its crew floundering about in shark-infested waters. Such is the climax of the most astounding piece of realism ever photographed—a motion picture made in the broad reaches of mid-Atlantic, with a 90-ton sperm whale as the principal actor, and the hand of chance directing as fierce a battle between man and mammal as the long history of whaling has ever known.

THINGS GOOD TO EAT

THIS is the season of the year when we may revel in the sweets from the maple trees. Fortunately indeed are they who may have this delicious sirup from their own sugar trees, as the price on the market is largely prohibitive to the ordinary pocketbook.

Hot sirup boiled and poured over a pan of snow or ice until a wax is formed is one of the most delicious sweets for the children. Baking powder biscuit dough rolled out into rectangular form, spread with butter, then with scraped maple sugar, rolled up, cut into half-inch slices and baked, is another happy way to serve the maple flavor.

Plain ice cream served with nuts and maple sauce is an ice which leaves nothing to be desired. Ripe Olive Salad.—Take one package of cream cheese, break with a fork and mix with two table-spoonfuls of orange juice; when soft enough to mold add ten ripe olives cut very fine and mold the mixture into small balls; roll these in minced parsley and arrange on lettuce. Serve with French dressing.

Orange Cookies.—Cream one-half cupful of butter, add one cupful of sugar and the grated rind of an orange, one well-beaten egg; alter nate one-half cupful of orange juice with two and one-half cupfuls of flour sifted with four table-spoonfuls of baking powder. Set on ice to chill. Roll and cut sprinkle each cookie with granulated sugar and bake in a quick oven. Be sure that the orange juice is strained as the pulp when baked is apt to be bitter.

Fresh String Beans.—Use either fresh or canned beans. Melt one table-spoonful of sweet lard and add one-half of a clove of garlic cut in wafer-like slices. Cook for five minutes, remove from the fat add a table-spoonful of finely minced parsley, turn the beans into the fat, mixing all together. Serve very hot.

FOR WORLD WAR DEAD

Exclusive photograph of the standard type of headstone adopted by the War Department, one of which, suitably inscribed, will mark the resting place of each soldier who fell on foreign soil during the World War.

Corps at the Navy Department in Washington, D. C., and in all places other than naval and Marine Corps stations and ships of war, must appear in civilian dress when performing their official duties.

As a precaution against injury to blind-former service men on crowded streets, the Disabled American Veterans have asked the International Association of Police Chiefs, which recently met in Washington, D. C., to aid in securing regulations in all cities to recognize distress whistles carried by the blind. By use of the whistle the blind veteran could obtain assistance in crossing streets and getting directions.

The United States has issued a total of 8322 medals, including 95 Congressional Medals of Honor, for services rendered in the World War. Of the 95 Medals of Honor, five went to the unknown soldiers of the United States and its associates in the war, Great Britain, France, Italy and Belgium. A Distinguished Service Cross also was placed on the chest of America's unknown soldier at Arlington by special authorization of Congress.

A monument is now being erected in Washington by the First Division as a memorial to the men of that famous outfit who gave their lives in the World War. It is the first to be placed in the national capital by any organization of the late war. The monument is in the form of a column, surmounted by a figure of Victory. It is 78 feet high. The names of the dead of the division will be engraved on large bronze tablets and a cornerstone has been provided in which will be placed the records of the division.

The most wounded man in the A. E. F., Second Lieutenant Robert L. Robinson, will be officially placed on the retired list of the Marine Corps. Robinson was a machine-gun aviator and in the course of an air raid his squadron was attacked and his plane disabled after a fierce running fight. During the engagement he was hit with 21 machine-gun bullets, believed to be a record for a single engagement. After his pilot was disabled and in spite of his wounds, Robinson took charge of the plane and brought it to the ground inside the French lines. For this exploit he was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

"BLUESTOCKINGS" ARE OLD

Association Said to Have Originated in Venice. Though It Is Credited to England.

The expression "Bluestocking" is applied, sometimes a trifle scornfully, to a woman who is unusually learned. The term originated in Venice when in 1400 a society was formed of ladies and gentlemen calling themselves "della calza"—all the members of the society being distinguished by the wearing of blue stockings. The idea was taken up in Paris and became the rage among the lady savants of that city. From France it came to England in 1780 when Mrs. Montague displayed the badge of the Bas-bleu club at her assemblies. Mr. Stillingfleet, a constant attendant of the soirees, went by the name of Bluestockings. Boswell in his life of Samuel Johnson tells something of the first of the bluestockings in England, and although he writes as if the club had originated in England instead of Venice, his account is interesting: "One of the most eminent members of those societies, when they first commenced was Mr. Stillingfleet, whose dress was remarkably grave and in particular it was observed that he wore blue stockings. Such was the excellence of his conversation that his absence was felt as so great a loss that it used to be said: 'We can do nothing without the "blue stockings,"' and thus by degrees the title was established." Boswell concludes by saying that "Doctor Johnson was prevailed with to come sometimes into these circles, and did not think himself too grave even for the lively Miss Monton (a prominent member of the society)."

FEW WALK STRAIGHT PATH

Physical Imperfections Cause Pedestrians to Take Zigzag Course in Their Journeyings.

How do you walk? Do you proceed in a straight line or zigzag from side to side?

If you watch a number of pedestrians you will find that nine out of ten bear to the right, return to their proper course, and then start swerving to the right again.

This is because our right leg is more fully developed and stronger than our left. A left-handed person usually swerves to the left in walking, for in his case the left side is the more powerful.

If a man is slightly deaf in his left ear he will swerve to the left. If his other ear is affected he will go in the opposite direction. This is because the deaf stoop slightly on the side on which they can hear best.

Short-sighted people will swerve to the side on which they have their worst eye. Even people who are perfectly well physically and whose bodies are evenly developed zigzag in their walk. This is because their thoughts wander and their legs have not sufficient guidance.

Hatred.
This is no place for preachment, but we just heard a girl say of another: "I hate her so it makes me sick!"

That's about all hatred will do for you, dearie; and it won't even touch the object of your hatred. There's nothing that makes a girl uglier than hatred. If for no other reason, you might consider your good looks, and if you can't like a person, at least save yourself by just forgetting that she exists.

I'm writing this so I can clip it out and mail it to you, Little Lady; and maybe some other girls who hate people until it makes them sick will think it over, as you will when the ugly lines of hatred turn all your friends distrustful.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

High Turkish Dignitaries.

In Turkey, the supreme head of the ulamas or interpreters of the Koran, and the officer next in importance and dignity to the grand vizier, was the grand mufti. He was the chief spiritual authority, and in that capacity called sheik-el-Islam (lord of the faith). The grand mufti was chosen by the Sultan, who presented him with a vest of rich sables and granted him a salary of about $25 a day. He alone had the honor of kissing the Sultan's left shoulder, and enjoyed the special prerogative of girding him with the sword on his ascension to the throne.

No Other Way Out.

A banker, many of whose clients had suffered from the deflation, put great reliance in a certain tale as a clinching argument to crippled firms. It was about a man who was telling his son a bedtime story about an alligator. It was creeping up behind a turtle, with its mouth wide open. Finally it was within reach, but just as its great jaws were snapping shut the turtle made a spring, ran up a tree, and escaped. "Why, father," said the boy, "how could a turtle climb a tree?" "By gosh," replied the father, "he had to."

Proved Unworthy of Love.

He was nine and I was six. He always escorted me to school, for he said I was his girl and he was going to take care of me. One day we stopped by the roadside to pick flowers and happened to step on a bumblebee's nest. The angry bees darted straight for me and I ran toward my protector, crying, "Throw your coat over my head quick!" My love for him died when he angrily screamed back, "Get away from me, with your bees," and ran off, leaving me to my fate.—Chicago Journal.

Diamond Grove Memorial Mausoleum

APPRECIATE THE PRIVILEGE it is that you are offered at this time the first opportunity to subscribe to a Memorial, the grandeur of which is not equalled in any city of this size. Go to Chicago, to St. Louis, to Kansas City, see the Memorials they have, compare what is offered you at this time with any Memorial anywhere, for when Diamond Grove Memorial is completed and a reality, and you do not have space in it, or have not given thought to it as it deserves,—thought it would not be done, remember this: We have told it to you before, your city officers in charge of cemetery matters have given most thorough consideration to our record as Memorial builders and citizens as well. You are entirely protected.

It is your privilege at this time to purchase space of a character at home that to buy in the cities mentioned above, costs no less than three times to many times as much to buy. We give you the same service architecturally, our bronzes are molded in the same foundry, our marbles quarried and finished in the same works. Our own builders are skilled in just this work. None can give you more.

I. S. D. REUNION WILL CLOSE THIS MORNING

Officers Elected and Resolutions
Adopted Yesterday—Will Visit
Grave of Dr. Gillett.

The Illinois Alumni Reunion at the School for the Deaf closed their third day's successful program with a banquet Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. During the morning routine business was carried through and an excellent paper, "Visions of Future Athletics," was given by Coach Robey Burns. After the election of officers and the clearing up of minor details of business the Association adjourned but will spend this morning in the city attending chapel services conducted by Rev. J. H. Cloud D. D., and Rev. H. S. Rutherford after which they will visit the grave of the late Dr. P. C. Gillett.

At the business session the following officers were elected for a period of three years:

Mrs. J. F. Meagher, Chicago, President.

Thomas Hainline, Elkhart, First Vice President.

William Johnston, Bloomington second Vice President.

William Henry Mathers, Jacksonville, Treasurer.

Miss Anna Roper, St. Louis, Secretary.

The action of the association, embodying the action of the association on all important matters under discussion in the convention, is appended below:

Resolutions.

1. Resolved, That our thanks are due and tendered the administration of the school for courtesies extended us during our stay at our Alma Mater.

2. Resolved, That our thanks are due and tendered the local committee for the excellent arrangements made for our amusement.

3. Resolved, That our thanks are due and tendered the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce for providing automobiles for our sightseeing tour.

4. Resolved, That we endorse the National Fraternity Society of the Deaf as worthy of confidence and affiliation with.

5. Resolved, That the Alumni association views with great pleasure the earnest effort to direct the pupils in physical culture and give them scientific instruction in athletic sports.

6. Resolved, That it is the sentiment of the Alumni association that our school should be under the State Superintendent of Schools.

7. Whereas the General Assembly in session has not arranged a legislative visit to the school in the near past time, be it

Resolved, That the Alumni association of the Illinois School for the Deaf formally express its desire for the General Assembly for such visits.

8. Resolved, That it is the sentiment of the Alumni association that at least one of the teachers of our school should be a graduate of Galaudet college.

Whereas since the last reunion changes have been made in the managing officer and also in the principal and teaching corps of the school and therefore in the general policy of managing the school, and

Whereas, in their addresses of welcome the managing officer and the principal have mapped out the past achievements made since their appointment and the purpose yet to be fulfilled to the extent of their ability, and then called for our cooperation, and

Whereas, Miss Frances Wood, the dean of the teaching faculty in her address on "What the Alma Mater Has Done in the Past Fifty Years" has clearly indicated the constant progress of and the different innovations in the school, be it therefore

Resolved, That the Alumni Association of the Illinois School for the Deaf in its triennial reunion of June 7-10, 1923, desire to express its sympathy with the policy and purpose so indicated, and, while aware of human imperfections and forbearing with apparent mistakes which may be swallowed up in the momentum of the progress of the larger purpose and policy, deems its duty to go forth and cooperate as never before with the gathering and teaching corps of the School to the extent of its knowledge and ability, and be further,

Resolved That the Alumni Association declare its readiness to do its full share in cooperating with the general work in all possible ways on a constructive basis of improvement.

After witnessing a corking baseball game in the afternoon in which the deaf boys were victorious the guests witnessed a perfect balloon ascension at 6 o'clock by "Griz" Wiswell the local aeronaut.

From the expressions of pleasure signified by all of the visitors this has been one of the most pleasant reunions ever held by the association and the expressions of gratitude toward the local committee and the people of Jacksonville have been practically continuous during their stay here.

The New Clark Jewel

SEE THIS BEFORE YOU BUY

We honestly believe the new Clark Jewel Oil Stove is the best oil cooker ever offered the buying public.

1. Inner Combustion Tube: Made of heat-resisting "Vesuvius Metal." Tapered combustion tubes prevent "boil-overs" from reaching wick, an assurance against wick sticking.

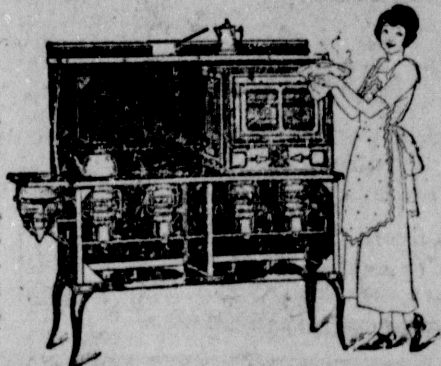

2. Automatic Wick Stop: Always in adjustment to stop the wick at the correct starting and burning point.

3. Inside Wick Tube: All brass, corrugated to prevent sticking and binding of wick.

4. Removable Head: Made of a material that does not easily transmit heat from combustion chamber to oil-well. Its quick-detachable feature makes wick-changing easy.

5. Chimney Raiser: A simple device, easy to operate. Makes lighting easy.

6. Outside Wick-Tube: All brass. Extra wide space between wick and outer tube insures easy operation of wick, prevents sticking and makes insertion and removal of wick an easy task.

NEW SPRING MILLINERY By Ida Scott Taylor

This old world of ours has grown giddy, I hear.

And begs for a new fangled bonnet each year.

And I saw her just don it, this stylish new bonnet.

And oh, how bewitching it made her appear!

This fixy old world is the talk of the day

As she goes on parade in her festive array.

With a flower-garden on it, she wears her new bonnet.

And walks like a duchess so grand and so gay.

This sporty old world all of slimpers and smiles

Disguised as a lady, creation beguiles.

And her daring green bonnet inspires a Spring bonnet.

For oh, it eclipses the daintiest styles!

This foxy old world needn't seem quite so vain.

Tho' her milliner's wonderful genius is plain.

For the truth is, her bonnet, with posies upon it,

Was fashioned by Spring in her rustic domain.

Of course this creation—this marvelous thing,

Could only be made by the milliner Spring.

Straw roses and posies and birds on the wing.

Not London, nor Paris, nor New York so fine.

Could build such a headgear of wondrous design.

For the flowers upon it, the World's new Spring bonnet.

Were made by an artist whose hand is divine.

Los Angeles, April 1923.

Willard Batteries Win Again!

Tommy Milton's great victory at the Indianapolis Speedway races against a field of the greatest automobile drivers in the country proved a victory not only for the driver and the car but also for the equipment which carried the car into first place.

The winning car was equipped with battery ignition, using a WILLARD BATTERY. Machines driven by Harry Hartz, Jimmy Murphy and Earl Cooper who finished second, third and fourth, respectively, were also battery equipped with WILLARDS.

Last year there was but one car in the race Willard equipped, that of Jimmy Murphy, the winner. This year out of the ten who finished within the money, seven carried Willard Batteries. This was indeed a great victory for this battery.

The Indianapolis classic is the most grueling test that can be imagined not only for the drivers and their cars but also for the storage battery. In the constant bumping and banging of the car in the 500 miles of the race the storage battery must continue to function, giving its eight sparks for every revolution of the powerful engines. The winning car was driven at an engine speed of 5,600 revolutions a minute, requiring the WILLARD BATTERY to supply 44,800 sparks per minute. Thus the battery on the winning car was required to furnish approximately thirteen and a half million sparks, a truly remarkable performance considering that no generator is carried on a racing car to recharge the battery.

S.S.S. keeps away pimples!

Spring is the "rush season" for pimples. Keep them from coming, and stop them quickly when they do come, by using the king of all Blood-Cleaners, S. S. S.

Pimples are the first thing one notices in another person's face. The world looks at pimples sideways and passes on. It is too often cruel!

You can have a rosy, healthy face by building up your Blood-Cells with S.S.S.

In its misjudgment, it judges from what it sees on the outside. Pimples are easy to get rid of. Not many people realize the enormous importance of the red-cells in the blood. For 97 years S. S. S. has been building red-blood-cells for the vast army of those who have suffered from skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, boils, and many forms of fiery, itching eczema. Blood-cells are the "dough-boys" in Nature's wonderful army. They are the conquerors of disease, blood-impurities, and weaknesses. If there are too few of them,

Miss Ida Wilson, Harrisville, W. Va., writes: "I was in a run-down condition. Had pimples and skin eruptions—was nervous. I took S. S. S. It built me up until I feel like another person. I am much stronger and better in every way."

they must retreat, and the disease-forces advance, take possession of your body, and plant their flag on your face, nerves, muscles. Help your blood to fight. Let S. S. S. increase the fighting blood-cell "dough-boys" in your blood. See impurities, skin eruptions, boils, and all the rest vanish from your face. An increase of blood-cells will do it every time. S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, body-builders, blood-cleaners of all time. Save time and money, and try nothing but "S. S. S."

S. S. S. has been proving its remarkable powers for 97 years. Your grandfather, if alive, would remember it well. S. S. S. because of its blood-building powers is a remarkable builder of firm, healthy flesh. It fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion as thousands of men and women can testify. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

EPISCOPAL BROTHERHOOD MEET IN CHICAGO

Chicago. (By AP).—Arrangements are already in full swing for the reception here during September of the largest gathering of laymen of the Episcopal church to be held this year, when the fortieth anniversary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is celebrated.

Not only will every Episcopal parish in the United States be represented by men and boys, but almost every parish of this denomination in England, Scotland, Ireland, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the West Indies also will send delegates and members. The gathering is known as the International Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The organization of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was inspired by the late James L. Houghteling of this city in 1883 and from a very meagre beginning it has spread to be one of the largest organizations for men and boys in religious work in the world.

"Since its birth it has been and always will be the heart of a movement to spiritually vitalize the man and boy power of the church," said Courtney Barber, of this city, chairman of the convention committee. The national body has held 37 conferences, none of which is restricted to members of the Brotherhood, but to all church men and boys.

SLID AWAY FROM ARREST

Quaker's Explanation That It Would Have Been Inconvenient at the Time Is Humorous.

A story dating from our Civil war has just been retold by Earl Russell, grandson of Lord John Russell, the great Victorian statesman, in his "My Life and Adventures." A Philadelphia lawyer named Rosengarten was a colonel in the Northern army and was dispatched to arrest John Janney, a Quaker, who had signed the Virginia act of secession. He found them all at a "meeting," so he just sat down and said: "I don't want to disturb your meeting, but I want you that at the end of it, it is my duty to arrest John Janney." One of them arose and said: "Will they take off thy hat?" "No," he replied, "it is a Friends' meeting." "Yes, thy hat is a military hat." So he took it off, and his sword also, after some demur, and one of the Friends took them out. After an hour or so, the meeting was over. "Now," he said, "I must remind you that I want John Janney. Pray stand up." About twenty of them stood up. "Nonsense," he said, "I want the John Janney who signed, etc." "Oh, that John Janney," they replied, "why he took out his hat an hour ago." He added that after the war John Janney came and called on him to apologize for slipping away, but said it would really have been very inconvenient for him to have been arrested just then. —San Francisco Argonaut.

DENY HONOR TO COLUMBUS
Northmen Said to Have Known of the Great Continent Long Before Columbus Was Born.
It is said by persons who have given attention to the subject that the Northmen were well acquainted with the east coast of North America nearly 500 years before the first celebrated voyage of Columbus. It is said to have been accidentally discovered by an Icelandic navigator, while endeavoring to make the coast of Greenland, in the year 1000. From that time, for about 350 years, the intercourse of the Icelandic Normans with Huliiland (Newfoundland) Markland (Nova Scotia), and Vinland (New England), was frequent and intimate. No other European people have been so scrupulously correct in keeping their records as the Scandinavians, and the accounts of these early voyages, which have been handed down from the period in which they were made, are most particular and circumstantial—more so, indeed, than those of the Spanish adventurers who followed Columbus.

All intercourse of these Northmen with America seems to have ceased about the middle of the fourteenth century. This fact is as extraordinary and inexplicable as that, about the same time, or soon after, they disappeared in like manner from the west coast of Greenland.
Sees No Change in Weather.
A scientist says the sun has not cooled five degrees in a thousand million years. This may be true, but our recollection is that a thousand million years ago the summers were much hotter and dryer than they are now. A thousand million years ago the heat was so intense we couldn't sleep nights; even in our favorite northern resorts a palm beach suit felt like a winter overcoat. The mercury used to break the necks of the thermometers. In those days they used to deliver ice at nights, because it was impossible to transport it in the daytime. A 25-pound cake of ice in a trip from the wagon to the back door, if the sun was shining, would be changed into a kettle of boiling water. Only five degrees cooler in a thousand million years—the man has grown forgetful!—Detroit Free Press.

Some Consolation.
The guest found the bride's biscuit rather heavy. They kept forcing them on him, and he kept nibbling at them. But he slid several into his side pocket. The bride saw this and said her husband. Of course they were too polite to say anything. However, as soon as the guest had departed, the bride began to whimper.
"Cut out the weeps, dearie," counseled her husband. "Take it as a compliment. With those biscuits he doubtless intends to conduct some important experiments from which we may all reap fame and fortune. He's a noted road builder."

Women and Others.
"Women who are useless as wives often make excellent housekeepers."
"A woman judges the merit of a play by the satisfaction which it offers, a man by the number and length of the intervals."
"Never make the mistake of taking family squabbles seriously. Mutual abuse is a privilege which is much esteemed in the home."
"Between the ages of fifty and sixty a man is a devil of a fellow—after dinner. At breakfast time he is just the devil."—From the Relations of Harlequin by Stoni Semper.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Ton Litter News
There are now eighteen litters contending for the prizes offered by the Farm Bureau Bank and various breed organizations. The project is certainly placing a premium on good feeding and care. The various farms have been posted with placards showing that the resident is a member of the Ton Litter Club.
Concrete Proves Satisfactory for Corn Crib Floor
In a recent visit to the farm of C. F. Story of Nortonville, the writer was shown a corn crib with a concrete floor that does not become damp and mold either corn or small grain. The floor is constructed so that it does not come in contact with the ground.

Successful Pasture Mixture
The late S. H. Crum seeded a 9-acre field near his Litterberry residence with a pasture mixture containing alfalfa, red clover, alsike, sweet clover, and alfalfa. Recently this field had a great crop of all of the above with sweet clover most in evidence. However, it is to be cut for hay instead of pastured.

Agricultural Situation in Illinois
E. Rauchenstein, Farm Management Specialist at the College of Agriculture has stated in the current Agricultural Situation that farm wages in Illinois have increased $10 per month over those of 1922, that weather conditions have been such that farmers could get in the maximum corn acreage in spite of the shortage of labor. He further states that 60 or 70 counties of the state have grain fields infested by chinch bugs and that the rains of May have not hurt the bugs to any extent.

Considerable clover has been winter killed especially on soil which was on border line in regard to acidity. Mr. Rauchenstein predicts an apple crop of 4,000,000 barrels, but only one-third to one-half a peach crop. The outlook in dairy regions is good. Some marketing difficulties have been overcome particularly in the St. Louis area. Cattle feeders are credited with a good measure of prosperity during the past winter.

Cost of Producing Soy Beans
The acre cost of producing soy beans on seven Champaign county farms where the beans were threshed in 1922 varied from $25.34 to $33.47 per acre on different farms. The yield varied from 7.25 bushels to 22.5 bushels per acre. After crediting the crop with the value of pasture and roughage, these same farms showed a range of from $1.10 to $3.25 per bushel in the cost of producing beans. Part of this variation in cost was due to an unfavorable year which caused a wide variation in yield. On the other hand, the results are what might be expected with a new crop which many people were not accustomed to raising.
It is worth noting that man labor varied from 11.2 hours to 15.6 hours per acre, and that horse labor varied from 21.3 hours to 40.1 hours, showing that some men used 40% more labor and nearly 90% more horse labor than others in handling the soy bean crop. As would be expected from data on other crops a great deal of this variation in the amount of labor and in cost is due to the variation in efficiency in farm operation. If a cost of 25 cents an hour for man labor and 15 cents an hour for horse labor is assumed the variation in labor would account for a variation of $3.92 per acre in the cost of producing soy beans. Since heavy labor on soy beans comes at the same time that corn requires much labor, it is all the more important that careful attention be given to reducing the labor used on soy beans to the minimum required to get good yields.

This Year-Round Jewett Pleases All the Family

Comfort That Defies Weather—Performance To Be Proud Of

Jewett Sedan is breezy and cool on hot days. All side windows lower, as illustrated. You enjoy all the "openness" of a touring car. In the dusty stretch or sudden storm, raise the windows and you are just as snug and clean as at home. Lock the doors and luggage is safe.
When Jack Frost comes, this Jewett Sedan is doubly prized by all the family. With windows closed tight—they do close tight—you are comfortable on the bitterest days. You will go out often, keep in closer touch with your friends, really use your car.
But Jewett Sedan gives more than weather comfort. With the longest springs of any car its size—and costly, deep seat cushions—it defies rough roads. Its rugged construction—Jewett is 200 pounds heavier than comparable cars—gives big car riding ease. It is finished, fitted and built to please and endure. Slam the doors. The sound bespeaks substantial worth.

STABILIZING BUSINESS

Babson Believes Advertising of Equal Importance With Banking

ATLANTIC CITY, June 8, 1923. —Roger W. Babson, guest of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World in convention addressed the main body of the meeting on Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Babson is much interested in the latent power of advertising both in connection with the distribution of goods and as a factor in studying business conditions.

"When the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World was formed, there was a great need for systematic vigilance and guidance," says Mr. Babson. "The condition of the advertising world was far below average business in usefulness and morality. Advertising was largely confined to patent medicine manufacturers, theatrical troops, and bogus stock promoters. Advertising was considered a gambler's game. The old saying 'Everything is fair in war and love' was extended to read 'Everything is fair in war, love and advertising.'"

"The first task of the new organization was to form vigilance committees and bring about honest advertising. It deserves the greatest credit for the work it has done and is doing along this line. "There are, however, other things which are equally important, and perhaps more important when all possibilities are considered. If one looks ahead to the future of advertising he sees three additional fields of development."

"The leading advertisers are each year giving more thought to the question of competitive advertising. By competitive advertising I mean advertising which does not benefit the country as a whole. There is nothing dishonest in both the Standard Oil Company and the Texas Company erecting large sign boards at the same point on a country road. Moreover, I am not criticizing either company for doing this. If one company does it, it is perhaps necessary for the other company to do it. I, however, am sure that these signs do not increase the sale or use of gasoline and in no way benefit the country as a whole."

"The cost of such competitive advertising is ultimately borne by the consumers. From an economic point of view such advertising is a direct loss to the nation as a whole. The people of a country are best off when they get the largest amount of goods for the least amount of labor. Therefore, we all should strive to eliminate, so far as possible, unnecessary labor and to use our labor for the actual production and distribution of goods. Instead of erecting competitive sign boards, carpenters should be building houses for working men; instead of using electric power for competitive advertising, it should be used for productive industrial purposes; instead of wasting newsprint on competitive advertising, the same space should be used for constructive advertising."

"Every sensible man recognizes the value of constructive advertising. Statistics show clearly that most goods can be sold more cheaply and effectively thru advertising than in any other form. Advertising, when properly used, is considerably cheaper than selling thru salesmen and clerks. Not only is the cost per sale less but, when selling thru the newspapers or the mails the maker knows just what he promises. The firm, however, who depends upon a crew of salesmen does not always know what the salesmen promise. There are many other economic advantages gained thru the intelligent use of constructive advertising."

"Finally we shall have what I like to call 'ultimate' advertising. The history of the advertising agent will be similar to the history of the banker. Banking as you know started with the pawn shop. The loaning of money in its early stages was looked upon as a most illegitimate business and carried on under cover by questionable people. Usury was not only banned by the church, but by legislation. It was only comparatively a few years ago, considering history as a whole, when banking was recognized as a legitimate business.

"During the past hundred years banking has gone thru various stages. The first campaign was to eliminate dishonest banking; the next step was to eliminate competitive banking; and the present generation has been engaged in constructive banking. The country is now learning, however, that the banker has a great opportunity in steadying business conditions, thereby eliminating reckless booms and preventing needless panics. It has been learned that by increasing the bank rate, during periods of over expansion, a panic can be prevented. Then by lowering the rate during periods of depression, prosperity can be brought back. It has been learned that the bank rate bears the same relation to business that the governor's veto to an engine. Hence, the banks have recently united in the Federal Reserve System which can control the discount rate with the sole object of eliminating reckless booms and preventing needless panics."

"If, however, you will talk with any bank man, thoroughly informed in economics, he will tell you that the goal cannot be reached except with the help of the advertising man of the country and the transportation systems. The three greatest factors effecting business are money rates, advertising rates, and transportation rates. Given control of these three factors one can go a long way in eliminating the hills and valleys of business. The Federal Reserve Board is doing as well as it can with only one of these tools, but at present it is like a carpenter with only a hammer, and without a saw or chisel. The Interstate Commerce Commission, which controls the rates of transportation, have the saw; but the advertising men have the chisel. Some day your 'Associated Advertising Clubs of the World' will take up the question of using advertising rates as a tool in connection with the steadying of business conditions."

"When business is recklessly expanding, advertising rates should be materially increased; so that when business is depressed advertising rates may be correspondingly reduced. One of the best barometers of business is the size of our daily papers. I do not want to reduce the size of our papers over a period of years. Rather I want to see them continue to increase in size. I, however, do object to a big paper one year and a small paper the next year. Business conditions will become steady and gradually increase only when the amount of advertising becomes steady and gradually increases. Violent fluctuations in advertising are not merely the result of fluctuation in business; but are largely the cause."

"A concern stops advertising because its business has fallen off, but the fact of its stopping advertising makes business still worse than it otherwise would be. To speak statistically, advertising begins to fall off because business begins to decline, but business declines to the depth much worse than it otherwise would because advertising is decreased. The changing of advertising rates and railroad rates in accordance with the Babsonchart would not only greatly benefit business as a whole, but would benefit those who have advertising space to sell and those who have transportation to sell. Business in every way will be helped by what I call this 'ultimate' advertising. May we hasten the day when it will be used."

General business as reflected in the Babsonchart continues in satisfactory volume, running this week at 2 per cent above normal.

DARING EXPLORER DRIVEN AWAY FROM FORBIDDEN LHASSA

Calcutta, (AP).—Dr. Hugh McGovern, the Irish Buddhist priest who recently succeeded in penetrating the world's greatest rampart of mountains, the Himalayas, behind which lies the forbidden city of Lhasa, has just returned to Darjeeling after having been arrested by British frontier authorities for violating Tibet's sacred ground. The doctor reports that in his attempts to get into Lhasa he and his four companions suffered intense privations and exposure in the snowclad mountains, which are 500 feet higher than the highest peaks in the United States.

After battling with snowstorms day and night and being compelled more than once to retrace his steps, McGovern at Hangu was confronted with a strike of his servants, who refused to go further. He had to beat them into submission before they would resume the journey. He kept his ultimate destination secret from his companions, fearing they would desert him if they knew the distance and the hardships. On the desolate mountain pass of Karula the Irish prelate revealed his objective. Only under compulsion did his companions continue the journey with him. To avoid detection by the fanatical Tibetans, Dr. McGovern dyed his hair and painted his whole body so as to look like a native. Thus disguised and attired in the dress of a peasant he played the role of coolie and cook. After many weeks of trying experiences and reverses he finally reached Lhasa, only to be apprehended by the Tibetans, who ordered his immediate deportation. He is now with his friends in Darjeeling and will soon leave for England. An American who is planning to enter Tibet is Captain Merl La Voy, of Seattle, Washington. Armed with credentials from the American State Department and permits from the Chinese Government, La Voy with a number of American scientists and explorers will leave India late in the fall and proceed directly for Lhasa.

KING SAVED MONEY TO RE-FIT ROYAL YACHT

London (AP).—King George's 30-year-old racing yacht, the Britannia, which he could not afford to replace with a more modern cutter, has just come off the ways for another season of racing. She has been re-coppered, overhauled, and equipped with new running gear.

King George has never hesitated to say that he could not afford to build another big yacht, and last year he even went so far as to tell yachting enthusiasts that the Britannia would have to remain idle until he had saved up enough money to fit her out with new equipment.

He has decided to race the old craft this year chiefly for the purpose of reviving the sport, and for the benefit of spectators at regattas, the Britannia under full sail, in a good breeze, is said to be a sight worth seeing.

Yachtsmen here say the days of racing big expensive vessels have passed forever. It has become such a costly sport, they say, that kings are no longer able to afford it, and even syndicates of millionaire sportsmen hesitate to undertake the huge outlay necessary.

Miss Lucy Mount, R. N., is spending the week end with her sister in Concord.

BERLIN SUBWAY SHYLOCKS TO WOO THE FICKLE MARK

Berlin. (AP)—Since the mark began palpitating, uncertainly from one day to another—in fact, from one hour to another—Berlin has undergone a mushroom growth of small exchange establishments along streets all over the city. The tourist, looking for a place to convert quickly his good American dollars, English pounds, or other currency does not need to make a lengthy search, for he runs into a money-changing booth at almost every turn, even in the midway promenade and driving sections of the boulevards.

Now an enterprising Shylock has hit upon the happy idea of setting up exchange shops at transfer points on the underground and elevated railways. The logic is simple: The alert business man enters his home station and buys a morning paper;

he finds the mark is rising, or falling; his office may be a half-hour away, too far to permit keeping pace with the exchange; at the transfer point he can sell "short" if necessary, or buy at a liberal margin, without the necessity of awaiting his train's arrival down town.

The first of these new establishments to put in an appearance is at the metropolitan subdivision of Schoeneberg, where trains from the fashionable West End meet those from the traders' residential district in southwestern Berlin. The authorities have granted an exchange dealer a 10-year lease on a part of the station. The basic annual rent will be 750,000 marks (about $20 when the contract was made) changeable in accordance with changes in the buying power of the mark.

NEWSPAPERMEN GO TO SWEDEN

Stockholm—Fifty leading journalists from all parts of the world, including six from the United States, will participate in the International Press Congress at Gothenburg, Sweden, which opens June 16 in connection with the Tercentennial Jubilee Exposition. After the congress they will be taken on pleasure tours through the most interesting sections of the country, according to travel plans and schedules which have been arranged here.

ROTARY CONVENTION TO FRAME CODE OF ETHICS

St. Louis, Mo.—Administrative problems and the best way to introduce a standard code of ethics among business and professional men throughout the world will focus the attention of ten thousand delegates, to the fourteenth annual convention of the Rotary International, which opens June 18.

The number of Rotary clubs in the world has almost doubled within the last five years, and there now are more than fourteen hundred club units, divided into 39 districts in cities of the United States, Canada, Mexico, Denmark, Uruguay, Spain, Panama and Argentina, with one international organization in the British Isles, Australia and South Africa.

Probably the most interesting business to come before the convention will be the discussion of the proposition that Rotary clubs concentrate their energies for a year, in development of programs that will have for an object the introduction of standard codes of ethical practices among business and professional men in all business or professions represented in Rotary.

An unusually large number of delegates from clubs overseas, particularly those from the British Isles and various parts of the British empire have announced their intention of coming and some have already started. St. Louis is making great preparations for the reception of the visitors, and already reservations have been made for more than 8,000 Rotarians.

STUDEBAKER
TOURING CAR
$975

More Cars Shake Themselves to Pieces Than Ever Wear Out

Charge that up to vibration.

Vibration causes cars to grow old prematurely by racking their chassis, destroying the "metal life" of vital parts, loosening up their bodies and causing squeaks and rattles. Frequent, costly repairs are the result.

The Studebaker Light-Six is freer from vibration than any car of its approximate size or weight yet produced.

This has been accomplished largely by a complete machining of the crankshaft and connecting rods on all surfaces—a practice used by Studebaker exclusively on cars at this price and found only on a very few other cars whose selling prices are from three to ten times as high as the Light-Six.

There are 61 precision operations in the manufacture of the crankshaft alone, 40 of which range in accuracy from one-quarter thousandth to one thousandth of an inch.

The Light-Six motor embodies the most advanced design known to automobile construction. And no chassis at any price is built to more exacting standards of materials and workmanship.

Aside from its mechanical excellence and its consequent long life, the Light-Six is handsome in design, extremely comfortable, sturdy, and we believe the most economical car to buy and operate ever offered at $975 or anywhere near this figure.

Its substantial all-steel body, one-piece, rain-proof windshield, ten-inch cushions upholstered in genuine leather, cowl lamps—these are among many features heretofore to be had only in higher-priced cars.

For 71 years the name Studebaker has stood for integrity, quality and value.

FOUNDERS OF MISSION TO BE HONORED TODAY

Three of Dominican Sisters Who Came to Jacksonville in 1873 Are Still Living—Celebration in Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, June 9—Gratitude of the two Illinois presidents, Abraham Lincoln and Ulysses S. Grant, to the sisters of the Third Order of Saint Dominic, for their work of charity in the Civil War, will be recalled here tomorrow at the pageant and jubilee, celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the first Dominican mission in the state.

Three of the six Dominican sisters who, in 1873, came from Springfield, Ky., and opened their mission at Jacksonville, Ill., are still living and will be given places of honor in the celebration. One of them, Mother Josephine Meagher, will be especially honored. She was one of the two who were selected when President Grant requested that two Sisters be named to unveil the statue of Abraham Lincoln at his tomb here.

The other was Sister Rachel Conway, who is dead. They came to Springfield the morning of the unveiling, and returned to Jacksonville the same night.

With Mother Josephine will be Sister Cecelia Carey and Sister M. Agnes Maguire, as the trio of surviving founders of the order in Illinois. The other two founders who have died are Sister Mary Thomas and Sister Thomasina.

That their work has prospered will be seen at the pageant. In place of six Sisters there are now three hundred, and in place of one mission at Jacksonville there are 27 missions scattered thruout Illinois, ten accredited high schools, and at the Motherhouse in Springfield, there are an academy and the convent of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

A parade of Catholic societies will open the jubilee celebration. The convent field mass will be celebrated by the Right Rev. John T. McNicholas, O. P. D. of Duluth, Minn. This service will be given a patriotic aspect. The 300 pupils of the academy will form themselves so as to make the Stars and Stripes each side of the altar. The pageant, wherein several hundred singers will participate will be given at 7:30 o'clock at night.

Chief among the invited guests will be Governor Small who has already promised to attend. All other state officials have been invited, and members of the legislature. All the sisters of the Order are here, their missions closed so as to permit a full attendance.

SHOULD CUT RED CLOVER HAY EARLY

Will Get the Highest Per Cent of Digestible Nutrient—University of Illinois Expert Gives Opinion

URBANA.—To get the highest per cent of digestible nutrients from red clover hay, it should be cut early, while the largest amount of feed will be obtained from the late cuttings, according to John Piper of the crop production division of the University of Illinois. The best results will be found by cutting just as it comes into full bloom, but there are conditions which made it advisable to cut earlier or later, he pointed out.

"The per cent of protein in the plant increases up to the blooming period but decreases after that," said Mr. Piper. "Early cuttings are difficult to cure because the plant contains 75 per cent or more of water, while the late cuttings are equally difficult to handle because of the loss of leaves: It should be remembered that about 40 per cent of the plant is leaves, which is the best part of the hay. The leaves are richest in protein, containing about two-thirds of the total of the plant. The small stems are next, while the coarse stems are poorest in this valuable part of the feed."

"The weather also is an important factor in deciding the time of cutting clover hay. Both early spring and late fall furnish poor hay curing weather. Any delay in the time of cutting hay in the spring should bring us nearer the ideal hay weather. The reverse is true for fall cuttings. In any case, one should avoid wet, rainy weather during the process of making hay. One safe rule to follow is never to cut clover when there is moisture on the plants, either in the form of dew or rain."

"If the grower intends to harvest seed from the second crop, he should cut the hay crop so as to control the clover seed insects. Results of several experiments indicate that the hay crop should be harvested before the first of June. While this varies with the season yet in most cases it would be before the heads have come into full bloom."

"The quality of hay; the quality of feeding value as influenced by the digestible nutrients, the per cent of heads, leaves, and coarse stems; the weather for making hay as well as the influence of the hay crop on the succeeding seed crop are all factors which should be considered in deciding when to cut clover for hay."

ANNUAL MEETING OF COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS

Springfield, Ill.—A conference which will be in the nature of a school for county superintendents will be held here June 20-21 when the county superintendents of the state hold their annual gathering.

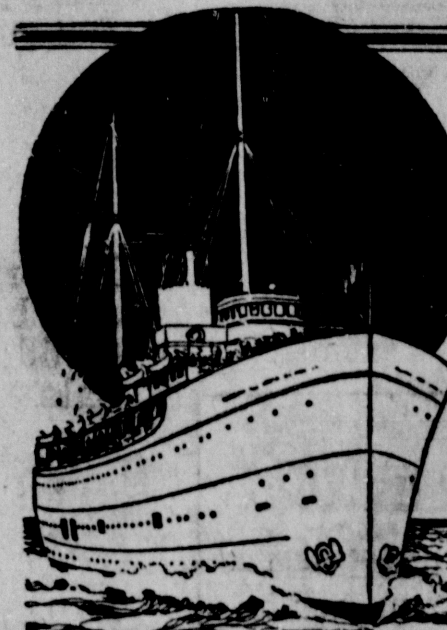

Those who served several terms are urged to assist the newly elected superintendents who will take office August 1.

The conference will study the school law and especially the duties of the county superintendents as laid down therein. Each superintendent has been supplied with a copy of the law.

The questions to be discussed come under the following heads: The state superintendent of public instruction, the county board and county clerk, the auditor of public accounts, the township trustees and treasurer, the boards of directors or education, the teachers, the non-high school board, the community consolidated school, the certification of teachers, revision of the state course of study, new school laws.

The first session will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening, June 20, in the capitol building. The conference will be addressed by Francis G. Blair, state superintendent.

Nearly 70,000 wild animals are killed annually for their furs.

IDE SQUARE

ANCIENT ICE FLOES CAUSED RICH SOIL GEOLOGIST THINKS

Evanston (By AP).—Farmers living in the fertile valley of the middle west may attribute their rich crop yields, fat swine, and excellent butter to the fact that more than 50,000 years ago their acres were covered with ice.

This is the gist of the finding of Professor William H. Haas of the geology department of Northwestern University, who has made a study of the subject, concentrating his observations upon Ohio.

Comparing the glaciated section of the continent and the driftless area Professor Haas found that the soils in the two differed. In the glaciated land the soils are more diversified and of better quality, he states. "With this asset it is little wonder that the farmer living in the zone which aens ago had been covered with ice should find himself better off than his brother of the driftless area," says Professor Haas. "This area covers some 10,000 square miles and embraces northwestern Illinois, a small part of Iowa, southwestern Wisconsin and Minnesota."

The geologist, in explaining the action of the ice and why that portion of the earth's surface touched by it should yield to man an abundance of crops, said that the pressure exerted by the glaciers 50,000 years ago crushed the rocks and mixed the dirt as they rolled southward; hence the many soils.

"It is remarkable," said Professor Haas, speaking of Ohio, "to notice how, suddenly, the tall corn will end and be neighbored by stunted stalks and shriveled ears. "All this is on account of the fact that hundreds of centuries ago some rocks of a particular hardness, able to withstand the onward sweep of the ice fields from the north, deflected the fields, thus leaving the area which the rocks appeared to protect, unglaciated. That, in my opinion at least, accounts for those 10,000 square miles of comparatively poor soil, or, as we geologists say, the driftless area."

Professor Haas stated that the demarcation between the healthy grain and the sickly, stunted grain was so distinct as to form a well-defined line showing the boundary between the glaciated and non-glaciated land.

Professor Haas explained that many authorities do not hold to this view, professing themselves unable to account for the driftless area; others, he said, went to far as to question the existence of the so-called driftless area.

The Northwestern professor declared that the glaciers accomplished three great effects; they cut down the hills and filled in the valleys; they ground up the boulders, and, thirdly, mixed the rock.

CONCORD

Mrs. Leo Stone and children of Jacksonville returned to their home the first of the week. They were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ginder the latter part of last week.

Miss Abbie Hayden, of Jacksonville was the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Detrick, last week.

C. O. Bayless is having a furnace installed in his residence. Mrs. Edward Collier of Peoria, and sister, Mrs. Haylor, were Concord visitors Decoration day.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt were called to Beardstown Sunday by the serious illness of their daughter's little son.

The commencement exercises were held at the M. E. church Saturday evening, June 2. A large crowd attended and listened to a good program. County superintendent Vasconcellos made the address.

Wm. Decker, one of the old residents of this place, died Wednesday night at the age of 81 years. Funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. Smith, Saturday evening. Rev. Thomas Symonds of Rockbridge, had charge of the services. Music was furnished by Spencer Smith, Bert Way, Mrs. Fred Kinder and Miss Alma Deterding, with Miss Helen Yeck as pianist. The many beautiful flowers were in charge of Mrs. Beattie Clement, Mrs. Lottie Kuhlman, Miss Dorothy Smith and Miss Christine Laughery, all granddaughters. The pall bearers were grandsons.

At the close of the Decoration day services, a committee was chosen to make arrangements for next Decoration day. Bert Way, chairman, Edward Newton and Arthur Yeck, members.

The M. E. church will give their children's day program next Sunday evening. The Christian Sunday school will give their Children's day service Sunday morning.

The Ladies aid of the Christian church was entertained June 5 by Mrs. Wm. Deterding and daughter, Miss Alma.

A meeting was held Tuesday night to organize a cemetery association. A committee was appointed to investigate. Another meeting will be called later.

ADVENT OF AMERICANS RAISES PRICES IN PARIS

Paris, (AP).—The favorite topic of conversation in Paris, the high cost of living, displaced from time to time by the changing situation in the Ruhr, never is long neglected. Today it is flourishing. The vanguard of the 1923 crop of American tourists is here, and the retailers of the city are playing the game with the limit removed; any price goes.

But the truth of the situation is hard to determine. There arrived recently from the coast two heavy consignments of sea food, lobsters and cod. The lobsters were seized upon at 15 francs a pound, and the stalls quickly cleared. Nobody wanted the humble cod, at three francs a pound, and several thousand pounds had to be thrown away.

TO ESTABLISH SHRINE IN MEMORY OF MARK TWAIN

Florida, Mo.—The plan to establish a Mark Twain Memorial Park here, where the humorist was born, has met with an encouraging response, according to officers of the Mark Twain State Memorial Park Association, which is fostering the movement.

The executive committee has set August as "Mark Twain month," and the first week in September as "Mark Twain week." All lovers of the famous humorist should read at least one of his books in August, the committee declared, and heads of schools will be asked to have some sort of memorial program on one day in "Mark Twain week."

M. A. Violette, owner of the home here in which Mark Twain was born, has promised to donate the house and its old-time curios to the association.

Mark Twain was born November 30, 1835, and in his autobiography he humorously speaks of Florida as having "two streets, each a couple of hundred yards long, the rest of the avenues mere lanes, with rail fences and corn fields on either side."

Florida, however, has grown into a neat little town, with all the usual business institutions.

The majority of members of the association are editors of newspapers in Missouri.

At graduation time your friends expect your photograph.

INDIA PROTESTS AGAINST DUTY ON AUTOMOBILES

Calcutta, (AP).—The imposition of a thirty per cent import duty on motor vehicles coming into British India has brought out a vigorous protest from the India Motor Trade Association.

The argument is advanced that an enormous class, in urgent need of modern transportation, has been precluded from buying, and that the lower priced American cars are not meeting the situation. Motor imports were lower in 1922 than in 1914, 1915 and 1916.

The development of road transport is of special importance in a country with limited railroads, the association says, and India will suffer serious consequences if this restriction upon the industrial development of the country is not removed.

Telephone Talk No. 21

"Timing Long Distance Telephone Calls"

How does the telephone company time a long distance call? The method is simple and accurate.

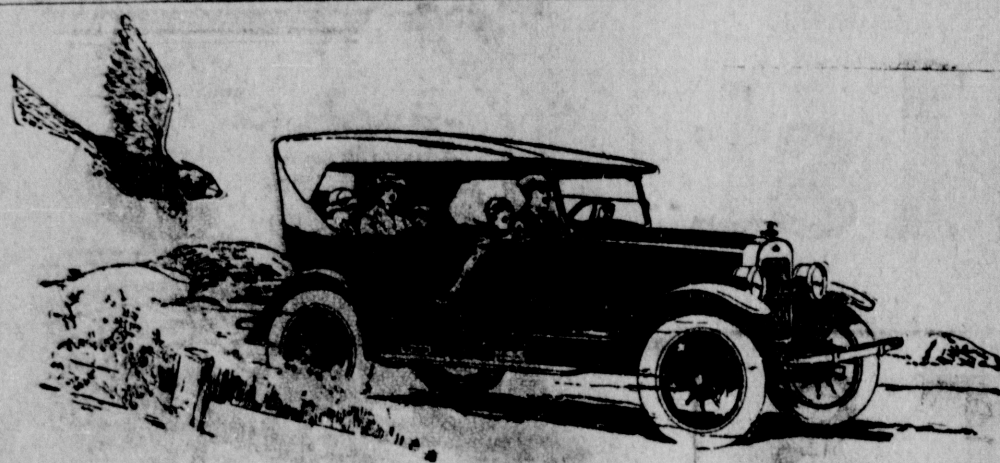

The operator does not look at a clock; she might easily misread the clock. She has a ticket on which the details of the call are written. When the conversation starts, she slips the ticket into a machine called a "calculagraph" which automatically stamps on the back the correct time, a fraction of a minute.

When the conversation is finished, the calculagraph again stamps the ticket in a way which shows directly the time which has elapsed since the first stamping.

The calculagraph is carefully inspected three times daily in order to see that it is in perfect working condition.

The use of this mechanical device insures accuracy in the timing of long distance calls.
